THE PRIZE

THE JOY OF KNOWING JESUS!

(Philippians 3.7-14)
By Paul Dallgas-Frey

Paul the Apostle wrote this...

There is nothing better than knowing Jesus.

I consider everything I have achieved in this life worth nothing compared to the greatness of knowing Jesus my Lord. And I would gladly give up everything in this world for the joy of having Christ Call me his friend and brother.

Not that I could ever earn or deserve that. But Christ Calls me his friend and brother because I believe in him. He makes me good and holy, and worthy of his friendship and love, because of my faith in him.

And so, one thing I do. I forget what happened yesterday, and I keep my eyes on what is ahead. I press on to win the prize that God is keeping for me - and that is to share in an everlasting life overflowing with love and happiness with Jesus.

There is nothing better than that on earth or in heaven.
