- Pre-Covid: “I trust you get your work done. Don’t let me come up there and have to speak to your teachers.” Accessing your child’s actual work was a struggle at times.
- Present Covid: “I saw the email from your teacher. I am linked in on the class. Put the game down and get to work boy. Come sit right next to me and get your classwork done.”
- Post Covid: “Don’t think that because you are back in the building I am not going to follow what you are doing every day. I still get those emails. What is the name of the book you and I are supposed to be reading again?”
