

The Tale of Romancing the Cat

I was born in New York on April 6, 2016. My registered Jockey Club name is Romancing the Cat but, since the day I was born, my owners call me Little Bugger. They say it's because I am one.

If you know my dad, Courageous Cat, then you must know that he is a royally bred, Grade 1 stakes winning millionaire! His mom was a millionaire too!

Romanova, that's my mom, is the best mom. She made me start training early by running me back and forth along the fence line every day! And guess what? Her dad was a millionaire too!

The saddest day for me ever is when I had to leave my mom. They told me it was time I start growing up on my own and that I have a lot to live up to. The pressure!

Growing up, my best friend was True Prosperity. We were like two peas in a pod! Then one day they said I had to go be with all the other colts and she had to go be with the fillies. I hope I see her again someday!

Life right now is pretty simple. I live on a great farm in New York and have made a new friend. I am usually pretty calm but sometimes when the people on the farm want me to do stuff, I act up a little. For instance, I hate flies but I hate fly spray even more! So, if I act up, they stop spraying me! Maybe that's why they call me Little Bugger! He-he.

It's great when my owners come to see me - they come every week! They bring me carrots and I get plenty of hugs, rubs and kisses! But I don't want my friend to think I'm a baby so I turn away if he's there. They understand though. Teenagers!

Pretty soon, I will have to go to another farm to train for racing. I'm kind of excited about that! There is "Winner" in my blood so I can't wait for my first race!

Well, that's all that's happened in my life so far. I hope you might continue to follow my journey because I'm sure there will be plenty to add to my story. In fact, why not be a part of it and join my partnership? I can never have too many great owners! (And I am pretty cute!)

To be continued