

Knights, Pirates, Barbarians, Gypsies, Vikings, Princesses, and more, it must be...
The Kerrville Renaissance Festival
!HUZZAH!

What: The Kerrville Renaissance Festival 2018

When: January 26, 27, and 28. Friday and Saturday 10-5, Sunday 10-4.

Where: River Star Arts and Event Park on the grounds of the Hill Country Youth Event Center, HWY 27 in Kerrville.

Kerrville Renaissance Festival transports modern-day visitors into a time and place from far away. Occurring over a single weekend in January, a village's worth of entertainers, musical acts, food vendors, and artisans help shape an immersive experience back in time.

Located in a picturesque setting in the Texas Hill Country the Family-Friendly Festival will feature Locally Renowned Last Chance Forever Bird of Prey show, the music of The Dublin Harpers, Coal Black Rose, and Klaus Weiland. Live entertainment on 6 stages will include The Great Rondini, Austin Favorite Magical Mystical Michael, and more. New this year The Vinland Texas Vikings Camp with battle demonstrations by Vinland South Shield Wolves. The Merchant village of over 40 artisans will include potters, jewelers, painters, leather workers, and more eclectic and unique crafts for your shopping pleasure. Food is fit for a King featuring of course the ubiquitous Turkey Legs and meats on a stick. Other foods will include Cinnamon Roasted Nuts, Deep Fried Ravioli, Crepes, Fresh ice cream, and not to be forgotten, BEER.

Discount tickets available online now at KerrvilleRenFest.com

Adult: $11.95 - ($14.95 at the Gate)

Child (5-12): $6.95 - ($9.95 at the Gate)

Children 4 years old and under are FREE.

Open Rain, Snow, or Shine.

Additional information available at www.KerrvilleRenFest.com

Email KerrvilleRenFest@Gmail.com

###