with

Philippe & Lisa Boët

Join us for a culinary-wine exploration of the unique regions of Champagne and Alsace. After meeting in Paris, we'll travel to Epernay and Reims, home of the world's most exclusive bubbly wines. Next is the historic village of Colmar in Alsace, our home for the following six days. Located in the heart of the Grand Cru Alsatian wine region, we'll explore the Vosges mountain foothills with excursions to the villages of Kaysersberg, Riquewihr, and Kintzheim. Additional destinations include Munster Valley, home of the famed farm cheese, the European capital of Strasbourg, and Freiburg, Germany, the western gateway to the Black Forest. Flammekueche, Kougelpopf, and sophisticated wines will delight your palate while we dine in traditional winstubs and Michelin-starred restaurants.

Accommodations and Meals include: Nine nights in 4-star and 5-star hotels, nine breakfasts (in hotel), nine hosted lunches and dinners, and a hands-on class with Alsatian pastry chef. Excursions include an escargot farm visit, tastings in Champagne houses and Alsatian Grand Cru wine villages, an exploration of Munster Valley and the Vosges mountains, a trip to the fortified town of Freiburg, Germany, with its iconic system of "Bächle" waterways, among other delicious discoveries in store for a small group of gourmands!
