CLERGY COLUMN

Stations of the Cross

The Stations of the Cross, sometimes called the Way of the Cross, is one of the oldest Catholic devotions. Praying the stations appears to have arisen out of the practice of early Christians in Jerusalem retracing the path Jesus walked to his crucifixion. We know that pilgrims visited Calvary and Christ's tomb from the earliest days. As Christianity spread across Europe, most people could not travel to Jerusalem and the practice arose of erecting local representations of the Way of the Cross. This became more popular after the Crusaders began returning from the Holy Land in the 11th century. The Franciscans, who received custody of Jerusalem's Holy Places for Latin-rite Catholics in 1335, also began to erect stations in Franciscan churches across Europe.

Normally I like to lead the Stations of the Cross at our parishes during Lent, but I have to admit the truth that I just don't have the energy for it this year. I hope you will not neglect the Stations this Lent. You can do them yourself with the booklets we have on hand, and I urge you to make time each week to come into the church on your own and pray your way through these somber moments of the Lord's Passion.

Weekly Reflections

"I have now brought you the first fruits of the products of the soil which you, O Lord, have given to me." (DEUTERONOMY 26:10)

This line from the Old Testament offers two challenges. First, do you give to God from your "first fruits" - the first and best that you have to offer, or do you give from what you have leftover? Second, do you realize that everything you have and that everything you are has been given to you by God? Ask God for a grateful and generous heart, every day, in all circumstances.

Prayer for Peace

Loving God of all peoples and nations, hear us when we call to you, answer our prayers, and show us your salvation. We unite in prayer with people of faith throughout the world for a swift end to the war in Ukraine. We pray for the men, women, children, and families fleeing their homes in fear because of the terror and destruction that wastes their communities and way of life. Be their shelter, a strong refuge, and fortress. Cover them with your pinions and give them refuge under your wings. Send forth and give your angels charge over the dissenting voices, delegations, leaders, and governments that speak out for peace and seek an end to war, granting them success. With your Spirit, lead your churches to be agents of spiritual and temporal comfort, hope, and strength. Christ of all peoples and nations, Prince of Peace, for the sake of your sorrowful passion, hear our prayer and have mercy on us and on the whole world. Your reign of endless peace, justice, and righteousness come on earth as it is in heaven. Amen.
