STEWARDSHIP

Gratitude in Action: Our Way of Life

God made all things good. Within our world today, evil appears so often with the threat of destroying that which is good and blessed by God. Evil lurks everywhere. We are called to avoid evil and help others do the same. Under the guidance and protection of the Holy Spirit, we can overcome evil with good.

Evil seeks to harm and destroy. Pure, true, selfless love never fails to do good. It overcomes attempts to hurt and destroy, sometimes by speaking out against those forces that support wrongdoing in our world. Love endures forever.

On Sunday, January 20, Dixie State University hosted an MLK Interfaith Service in honor of Martin Luther King, Jr. and his fight for tolerance and equality. It was sponsored by the Office of the Chief Diversity Officer, Multicultural & Inclusion Center. I offered the following prayer.

Many of us today dream of a world where we can live in peace and harmony with each other. Yet, we know for this dream to become reality, it must be lived daily within our own hearts. And so we pray:

*Lord, make me an instrument of Your peace;
When I witness hatred or prejudice, let me exemplify Your love;*

When feelings have been hurt or injured, let me offer forgiveness;

When there is doubt or lack of faith, let me share Your Word;

*Where there is the loneliness of despair, let me offer hope;
Where there is darkness in life, let me be a beacon of Your light;*

And where there is sadness, let me bring joy.

O Divine Master,

*May I not so much seek to be consoled,
as to offer consolation to others.*

*If I am misunderstood, let me remember so also were You.
Let me not seek as much to be loved, as to be love to others.
Lord, God, it is in giving of ourselves that we truly receive;
It is in forgiving that we, too, are forgiven.*

May we then, Lord, abandon our own will, embracing Your Holy Will instead, as we strive to bring Peace and Harmony to this world in which we live.

Amen.”
