Holy Week

Next Sunday, April 10, is the start of Holy Week. While we normally remember and celebrate Palm Sunday, Holy Thursday, Good Friday, and Holy Saturday, things happen on the other days as well (That's why it's Holy Week). Here's an overview of Holy Week to help you think ahead on how to celebrate at home.

Palm Sunday: Jesus rides on a donkey into Jerusalem with people waving palm branches. We have a special procession this Sunday for Mass.

Holy Monday: Jesus visits the temple, overturns tables, and runs out the money changers.

Holy Tuesday: Jesus returns to the temple, this time to teach.

Holy Wednesday (AKA Spy Wednesday): Judas agrees to hand over Jesus for 30 pieces of Silver.

Holy Thursday (AKA Maundy Thursday): Jesus celebrates the Last Supper, the Institution of the Eucharist and first Mass. Jesus also washes the feet of the disciples and they fall asleep as they are keeping vigil in the garden with Jesus.

Good Friday: Jesus dies on the cross.

Holy Saturday: Jesus lies dead in the tomb, this is the vigil for Easter.

Keep an eye out next week for an insert with ideas to celebrate Holy Week as a family!

WHY DO WE DO THAT? - CATHOLIC LIFE EXPLAINED

Tithing vs. Stewardship

Question:

What is the difference between tithing and stewardship?

Answer:

Both tithing and stewardship are part of a spiritual way of life that calls us to use all of our resources for the service of the Gospel. Everything we are and everything we have comes from God. Offering back to God what He has given us is part of how we worship and give thanks to God.

Tithing is the practice of giving back 10 percent of what we earn. It comes from the Old English word for "ten." The first Scriptural example of tithing came from Abraham who gave a tenth of his possessions to the priest Melchizedek. He did so as an act of thanksgiving to God.

Stewardship as a way of life calls us to use well all that we have and all that we are, placing all things in service of others and God. Stewardship helps us see the good we can accomplish by making God and our spiritual life the most important values in our life. Whatever we accumulate in this life stays here. We can't take it with us! Both tithing and stewardship help us remember that nothing is mine or even ours ... all belongs to God.

LIVE THE LITURGY - INSPIRATION FOR THE WEEK

Mercy makes us attentive to the voice of truth. We do not know what ever happened to the woman caught in adultery, after her encounter with Jesus. It is hoped that she found what she needed to feel true sorrow. What we do know is that through his gentle and wise persuasiveness, Jesus puts the Pharisees in their place and opens the door to grace for this child of God. Being exploited and used to test and discredit Jesus, she who is publicly known to be a sinner is now the victim. Jesus never tolerates people being used and immediately rushes to her defense. As the author of mercy, Jesus became her advocate and opened the door for her to God's love. Jesus also stands between us and the harsh, judgmental, and often hurtful stance of our world. He invites us to grace, to leave the sin that binds us, and for which we are often criticized, and pursue a life of virtue and freedom.

SAINT OF THE WEEK – EXAMPLES OF OUR FAITH

St. Benedict the African | April 4

St. Benedict the African (1524-1589), was born in San Fratello, Sicily to Cristoforo and Diana Manasseri, Africans who had been taken as slaves. Some accounts claim that because of his parents' loyal service that Benedict was given his freedom at birth, other sources say that his freedom was granted when he turned 18. At 21 Benedict joined a society of hermits living under the rule of St. Francis of Assisi. Eventually he succeeded his friend, Jerome Lanze, as their leader. When the Pope disbanded the independent hermit society, Benedict joined the Order of Friars Minor and he was sent to Palermo, to the Franciscan Friary of St. Mary of Jesus. There Benedict worked in the kitchens and despite being illiterate and a lay brother (not a priest), he also served as Master of Novices, and as Guardian of the Community. St. Benedict was known throughout his life as a brilliant cook under whose hands food seemed to multiply miraculously, a healer, and a spiritual leader with profound understanding. He is recognized as the patron saint of African Americans.
