

The Westminster Historical Society thanks you for your membership! Whether it was a donation of time, talent or treasure, we appreciate your contribution. We invite you to renew your membership this year.

We have been in the business of saving and sharing Westminster's history for 96 years. Taking a tour of the South Gardner mansion built by Westminster native S.K. Pierce, learning how DNA testing informs us about family genealogy, discovering the role of the Communist Party in Westminster's Holmes Park, conducting Colonial cooking with third graders or watching maple sugar being made – we're always on the go, helping connect you to our heritage. With your help, we can continue to provide this service to all.

We ask you to consider your membership as "paying it forward" in honor of past generations, so that your children and future generations can learn about and appreciate Westminster's rich heritage. Your membership support helps ensure that this will happen. Please join us!
