REMEMBER: Stretch Often!

STAYING YOUNG – JUST 10 MINUTES A DAY....As we know part of aging affects our muscles. They become shorter and tighter, reducing our flexibility. Stretching increases the range of motion in our joints. Better range of motion means better balance, better balance means less falls and injuries. Balance is often something that is overlooked and underemphasized at every age. Balance is good for your body's communication, coordination, reaction time, and long-term health. Calf and hamstring stretches as well as heel-to-toe calf raises are the best stretches for balance.

Make a commitment to do daily stretches in the morning while your coffee brews. You'll feel better because your muscles will be at ease and your range of motion will increase.

Vintage Quilt - Hand Pieced & Hand Quilted

Member Barbara Vorhees recalls the many times when her mother had a quilt in the works. Her mother, Locky Epperson, born in 1915, grew up learning to quilt from her mother often using fabrics from their dresses and aprons. When Barbara's mother passed away in 2004, She left behind several quilt tops which Barbara has generously donated to the center.

Another member, Wanda Toops, also an accomplished quilter, generously took this vintage top pieced from fabrics many over 80 years old, and painstakingly brought it to life with her beautiful hand quilting.

MAKING A DIFFERENCE. One of the ways we raise funds is through our fundraising activities such as After-Hours Dinners, Entertainment Shows, Ice Cream Social and Flower Sales. These events take a lot of help month after month and Scenic Hills Senior Center is grateful for the amazing volunteers who help with these events. Volunteers give so much of their time and talents whether it be from food donations, baking a pie, serving food, cleaning up, giving gifts for raffles, they (you) make a huge contribution to our center. Down through the years, we've been blessed with volunteers.

There is one group that stands out and that is the Ewing Grange.

For many, many years the Ewing Grange has turned out each July to help us make the ice cream for the Ice Cream Social. We'd like to acknowledge the long term commitment that Ewing Grange has made to the Senior Center along with our sincere appreciation.

Thank you Ewing Grange!
