PCN: 152501

DATE: 10 July 2015

SUBJECT: Product transfer of Touch Sensor Portfolio from Freescale Semiconductor

TO: Customer Contact

DESCRIPTION OF CHANGE: Resurgent Semiconductor has received the manufacturing rights for the Touch Sensor Portfolio of products from Freescale Semiconductor. This change includes the appointment, by Resurgent, of Arrow Electronics as the sole distributor for these products.

BENEFIT OF CHANGE: As an alternative to an end of life notification, Resurgent will continue to manufacture the products. Resurgent will assume responsibility for all manufacturing of the products. Resurgent Semiconductor is a privately held company specializing in supply continuity for products that are at risk of EOL or loss of manufacturing support. This transfer will extend the lifetime of the Touch Sensor Portfolio products and ensure high quality product for customers.

Arrow Electronics has proven their value in providing long-term supply for customers, resulting in the extension of product lifecycles for users. Also the presence of a dedicated worldwide sales and marketing force makes Arrow well positioned to assume the role of exclusive distributor.

IMPACT TO CUSTOMERS: Effective immediately, all customers will need to purchase Freescale Touch Sensor Portfolio products from Arrow Electronics. All orders currently placed with Freescale (i.e., already on file with Freescale) with a requested shipment date prior to or on 1 Oct 2015, will be serviced by Freescale. Orders with a requested ship date after 1 Oct 2015, will be transferred to Arrow Electronics and will be shipped by Arrow.
