Letter from the Baroness

Greetings Windhaven

It has been a blessedly mild winter so far, much to my satisfaction. As the days get longer I begin planning to plant seeds in anticipation of the summer crops. Spring will be here soon.

His Excellency and I are preparing for our first trip to the war in the south. As Northshield goes to Gulf Wars, we will travel along to support Their Majesties and the troops of our Kingdom. We look forward to sharing the company of those of you who are able to join us.

Windhaven is holding an event next month. Fighter's School is on the calendar for February 28. There are many volunteer opportunities available and I encourage each of you to sign up to help in at least one area: kitchen, gate, or security. In addition, we will need people to help with setup the night before and with cleanup at the end of the event. Cleanup is an area that is especially important because it has a tendency to fall on a few when everyone else leaves, thinking the work is all done. I want to put in a plea to all who are able to stay with His Excellency, Iohannes, me and any others who are willing to pitch in to make short work of that job. It will be greatly appreciated.

As a reminder, Falcon's Keep is holding Haire Affair on February 21 in Auburndale. This is always a fun event and we encourage you to join us there.

Peace

Mearha
