About The Columbia Arts Guild

The mission of the Columbia Arts Guild (CAG) is to create a community among the artists of Columbia County and to provide a forum for learning, networking and mutual support for its members.

CAG is a diverse group of artists ranging from professional and hobbyist to those who simply appreciate art. The group meets monthly to share ideas and discuss activities. If you create art or appreciate art, there is a place for you at the Guild. The Guild is a group that enjoys art in all its diversity. We sponsor a variety of activities throughout the year including workshops and seminars, field trips, events, gallery space and monthly meetings.

You are cordially invited to attend our regular monthly meetings. You do not need to be an artist or member to attend.

The Columbia Arts Guild Meets the Second Monday of each month at Noon in:

The Armstrong Room in The Columbia Learning Center
(the same building as the St. Helens Public Library)
375 S 18th St, St Helens, OR 97051

Founded in 1989, the Columbia Arts Guild is an Oregon Non-Profit Corporation. We have formed a partnership with the St. Helens Community Foundation to utilize their 501(c)3 Umbrella for events and grants. The Guild also joined the South County Chamber of Commerce and sponsor a Passive Art Gallery located in their building in St. Helens.

If you would like to join the Guild, dues are $15 annually for individuals or $20 for a family.
