

The Right Choice for Accreditation

The Qmentum International™ program is a tangible way to support organizational change and quality improvement within your organization. An accreditation award from Accreditation Canada demonstrates that patient safety, quality, consistency of service, and accountability are essential to your organization.

Why choose Accreditation Canada for your accreditation needs?

- Accreditation Canada's globally recognized Qmentum International™ program offers best-in class global health and social services standards and access to the latest innovative best practices from global experts
- A patient and family-centred approach to quality that fosters respectful, compassionate, culturally appropriate, and competent care that is responsive to the needs, values, beliefs, and preferences of clients and their family members
- A review process, delivered by your peers, to engage staff and support change through a two-way exchange that involves surveyors sharing their experience and learning from yours
- A process tailored to your organization's specific objectives that integrates your organization's current and changing needs, providing you with the most appropriate accreditation program
- Through a variety of clinical and non-clinical standards, you get a broad, system-wide view as well as a detailed view of service areas to help enhance the quality and continuity of services across the care continuum
- A dedicated team to support you throughout the process and beyond with experienced advisors who are focused on your unique quality journey, working to understand your goals and build a lasting relationship

How will your patients and their families benefit?

The Qmentum International™ accreditation process provides tangible results for your patients and their families, including:

- The confidence of knowing that your organization has invested in better outcomes for patients and their families
- Better provider-patient interactions which result in more meaningful exchanges
- Greater communication and collaboration to strengthen care practices and customer service
- A more active voice for the patient, who is seen as a true partner in managing their own health

"We chose Accreditation Canada, as compared to others, because we felt that it was more than just accreditation. It was a partnership."

— Dr. Bernadette Hogar, Head of the Quality Management Office, Manila Doctors Hospital

Accreditation doesn't end with a report and award. Implementing an accreditation program at your organization means building a relationship with your accrediting body that will last for years. Make the right choice, contact us for more information.
