Resident of The Month

Lou Baker has been chosen as Resident of the Month for Haywood Lodge. She was born in Charleston, S.C. She moved to the beautiful mountains of NC about 25 years ago when her husband retired. Lou is a fun loving, outgoing kind of gal. When Thursday night rolls around you can find her at Rendezvous with her church friends listening to music and maybe dancing. In her spare time she enjoys playing bingo with the other residents. We love you Lou and are glad you chose us to be part of your life.

Sharon Stowe is the perfect person for Spicewood's Resident of the Month. She was born in Wisconsin but lucky for us she ended up in North Carolina at Spicewood Cottages. Sharon is very outgoing and has a deep caring of other people and their feelings. She is often heard telling staff and other residents that she loves them. Her favorite past time is attending the Clubhouse daily. When not there she is usually found participating in an activity at the facility. Congratulations Sharon!!

ACHES AND PAINS ARE HERE TO STAY,
THEY SEEM TO CHANGE DAY BY DAY.
THE LIST OF AILMENTS SEEMS TO GROW, AS THE BODY STARTS TO SLOW.

GETTING OLD IS NOT FOR SISSIES

Employee of The Month

Chris Lowdermilk has been chosen as employee of the month. He works in the maintenance department and also works on the grounds during the summer. Chris was born and raised in Crabtree, NC. He is married to a wonderful woman, Tammy, and has 2 children and 5 grandchildren. He also has five dogs, 3 lizards, and a bunch of fish. Congratulations Chris!

National Volunteer Week April 7-13

National Volunteer Week was first celebrated in the U.S. in 1972 and sponsored by the National Volunteer Center. The national observance began in 1974 when President Richard Nixon signed an executive order establishing the week as an annual celebration of volunteering. The 2019 theme, "Celebrate Service," recognizes the impact of volunteer service and the power of volunteers to come together to tackle tough challenges and build stronger, more resilient communities.

All of Haywood Lodge facilities are blessed to have many, many wonderful volunteers. There is no way each one of you could be named because I would be afraid of leaving somebody out. You know who you are and our Lord and Savior knows who you are. Here is a poem dedicated to each one of you.

Many will be shocked to find when the day of judgement nears that there is a place in heaven set aside for volunteers.
furnished with big recliners, satin couches, and footstools, where there's no committee chairman, no group leaders, or carpools.

No eager team that needs a coach, no bazaar, and no bake sale.

There will be nothing to staple, not a thing to fold or mail.
Telephones will be outlawed, but a finger-snap will bring cold drinks and gourmet dinners and treats fit for a king.
You ask, "Who'll serve these privileged few and work for all they're worth?"

Why, all those who reaped the benefits and not once volunteered on Earth.

FLOWERS

A Waynesville Cub Scout group come to visit the residents. They shared with the residents about the cub scout program and had snacks with them. They wanted to have their pictures taken with the young men.

James Webster Cathey was presented a 70 year membership certificate from Waynesville Masonic Lodge 259 on Thursday, March 7, 2019. He is 96 years old and lives at Haywood Lodge and Retirement Center. He has been a member of the Masonic Lodge since 1949 and his is the first 70 year certificate that this lodge has given out. Pictured above from left; Vince Hyatt-Master, James Cathey, and John Allen, Secretary.

Hairstylist Appreciation Day

April 30

Thank you, Tricia!

This day was founded by a hairstylist in San Carlos, CA, because she feels that hairstylists should be recognized for the personalized service they give in making their customers look and feel great about themselves.

We would like to recognize and say thank you to our hairstylist, Tricia Myers. She has been with us for 13 years.

Easter
He IS Risen!

The residents were invited to an event for assisted living and adult day programs sponsored by the Senior Adult Program in Sylva. There was a costume contest and party. They got to choose a storybook character to dress up as. Everybody enjoyed the day and can't wait to do it again.

Inside Story Headline

This story can fit 150-200 words.

One benefit of using your newsletter as a promotional tool is that you can reuse content from other marketing materials, such as press releases, market studies, and reports.

While your main goal of distributing a newsletter might be to sell your product or service, the key to a successful newsletter is making it useful to your readers.

A great way to add useful content to your newsletter is to develop and write your own articles, or include a calendar of upcoming events or a special offer that promotes a new product.

You can also research articles or find “filler” articles by accessing the World Wide Web. You can write about a variety of topics but try to keep your articles short.

Much of the content you put in your newsletter can also be used for your Web site. Microsoft Publisher offers a simple way to convert your newsletter to a Web publication. So, when you’re finished writing your newsletter, convert it to a Web site and post it.

Inside Story Headline

This story can fit 100-150 words.

The subject matter that appears in newsletters is virtually endless. You can include stories that focus on current technologies or innovations in your field.

You may also want to note business or economic trends, or make predictions for your customers or clients.

If the newsletter is distributed internally, you might comment upon new procedures or improvements to the business. Sales figures or earnings will show how your business is growing.

Some newsletters include a column that is updated every issue, for instance, an advice column, a book review, a letter from the president, or an editorial. You can also profile new employees or top customers or vendors.

Inside Story Headline

This story can fit 75-125 words.

Selecting pictures or graphics is an important part of adding content to your newsletter.

Think about your article and ask yourself if the picture supports or enhances the message you’re trying to convey. Avoid selecting images that appear to be out of context.

Microsoft Publisher includes thousands of clip art images from which you can choose and import into your newsletter.

There are also several tools you can use to draw shapes and symbols.

Once you have chosen an image, place it close to the article. Be sure to place the caption of the image near the image.

BUSINESS TAGLINE OR

This would be a good place to insert a short paragraph about your organization. It might include the purpose of the organization, its mission, founding date, and a brief history. You could also include a brief list of the types of products, services, or programs your organization offers, the geographic area covered (for example, western U.S. or European markets), and a profile of the types of customers or members served.

It would also be useful to include a contact name for readers who want more information about the organization.

This story can fit 175-225 words.

If your newsletter is folded and mailed, this story will appear on the back. So, it's a good idea to make it easy to read at a glance.

A question and answer session is a good way to quickly capture the attention of readers. You can either compile questions that you've received since the last edition or you can summarize some generic questions that are frequently asked about your organization.

A listing of names and titles of managers in your organization is a good way to give your newsletter a personal touch. If your organization is small, you may want to list the names of all employees.

If you have any prices of standard products or services, you can include a listing of those here. You may want to refer your readers to any other forms of communication that you've created for your organization.

You can also use this space to remind readers to mark their calendars for a regular event, such as a breakfast meeting for vendors every third Tuesday of the month, or a biannual charity auction.

If space is available, this is a good place to insert a clip art image or some other graphic.
