

Membership Application and Agreement

Congratulations! You're taking the first step in becoming part of a world-class organization in the heart of southeastern New Mexico. Please review the following materials, complete the application form, and return to Riverside Country Club.

Once we receive your application, you will have probationary access to all the amenities appropriate of your membership level. The membership committee will review your application and make recommendations to the board of directors at their next meeting, which is the third Thursday of the month. You will be notified of the board's vote the following date.
