

At Copper Ridge School we "dress the part". Students are here for their personal and academic successes and are expected to dress as such.

Our expectation is that students will be in uniform at all times. This includes wearing proper CRS Identification.

Uniforms are expected to be the proper fit and size for the student. No garments may be decorated w/ rhinestones, sequins, lace, embroidery, or any other decorative material.

If you have any questions regarding the uniform please contact the CRS office directly.

Copper Ridge Uniform Policy (Revised 7/1/10)

Uniform Policy Copper Ridge School has a Uniform Dress Policy for kindergarten through eighth students. The Uniform Policy gives the school a positive and distinctive identity and reflects the values of the school and community. Students are required to conform to the Uniform Policy each day.

I. Uniform Requirements and Guidelines

A. Uniform Requirements: Kindergarten through eighth grade students are restricted to the clothing outlined in this pamphlet. Immodest or distracting dress or appearance of any type is not permitted. This is not confined to clothing, but also includes fads in hairstyle, makeup or other distractions that would, in the opinion of the Principal or Assistant Principal, tend to promote student disruption, jeopardize student conduct or otherwise interfere with the educational process. Clothing or appearance will be considered inappropriate if, in the judgment of the Principal or Assistant Principal, it presents a risk to the health, safety or general welfare of the students, staff or others by the following:

- Interfered w. or disrupt the educational environment or process;
- Is counterproductive to the curriculum goals or educational objectives;
- Produces disorder or creates an atmosphere of threat, intimidation or undue pressure; or
- Causes excessive wear or damage to school property.

II. Interpretation & Violations (Uniform Policy)

A. Interpretation: CRS Administration of teachers may question the dress of any student. The CRS Principal & Assistant Principal will have complete and final judgement on all matters concerning interpretation of the standard of dress policy. Matters of concerning appearance and dress not specifically covered in the standard dress guidelines shall be within the discretion of the Principal or Assistant Principal. (Reference Uniform Code of Student Conduct) as follows:

B. Consequences of Violation

First Violation:

-Referral to the office (if necessary) to align clothing with the dress code as follows:

- Change into clothing that may be provided by the school in available;
- Have other clothes brought to school; or
- Remove the accessory or article of clothing in violation.

Second Violation:

- Same as first violation w/ additional communication home in order to ensure appropriate clothing is worn.

Third Violation:

- The student may receive a SUSD Conduct Referral citing student insubordination w/ respect to the dress code compliance. Behavior intervention may include daily check-in w/ administration.

Further Violations:

- Could result in more severe disciplinary procedures, including suspension, in accordance with any other provision of Article B of the Uniform Code of School Conduct that is violated as a result of the dress code infraction.
