A NEW SEASON IS HERE

Did you ever notice how significant things take place without you realizing it? Only after the fact do the majority of the people recognize what happened. When you joined in with us and declared over this year that momentum was building in your life and ministry, something was planted in the spiritual realm. There was a connection made with your past seeds and good deeds to what you are doing now. You declared with us that nothing has been wasted. A mighty harvest will come out of what you have done and are doing. Nevertheless, up until now there has been little to no fruit appearing. Did we miss it? Was it a false prophecy? What is really going on? Let's go find out.

Ezekiel 12:26-28 ESV And the word of the LORD came to me: (27) "Son of man, behold, they of the house of Israel say, 'The vision that he sees is for many days from now, and he prophesies of times far off.' (28) Therefore say to them, Thus says the Lord GOD: None of my words will be delayed any longer, but the word that I speak will be performed, declares the Lord GOD."

Critics and skeptics are a dime a dozen. Not only were they present and active when the prophet Ezekiel was releasing the word of the Lord in his day, these same opponents are alive and well today. If you do not think so, then just start pioneering something in the spirit. While they claim to err on the side of caution, their true agenda is quite sinister. I, like other mature and wise leaders in the Body, believe in testing words and spirits. Each prophecy should be judged according to scripture. Their agenda is not to seek the truth. It's to challenge the revealed word of the Lord to such a level that the recipient lets it go.

These critics and skeptics look at what a word like "building momentum" and say, "No you are not. Nothing is happening! You need to change your direction. Come be like us. You are wasting time where you are. Let it go." Why are they so adamant about this? It is because they realize without someone to believe in the revealed word, it will go unfulfilled. That is exactly what they want. Do not let them succeed. You know better.

Contrary to the claims of these critics and skeptics, something is definitely happening. By embracing this promise, momentum has been building in your life. Much like the seed that you bury in the ground, this word may have gone unseen for a season. It is at work nonetheless. In fact, it is growing powerfully underneath the surface. Those who have been accompanying the process are well aware of the difference. Growth has started to become evident.

Furthermore, I know that you did not plant and then abandon your seed. No, you have been nurturing it with faith, anticipating its fulfillment. Your continual words of prayer and confession concerning building momentum are functioning like water given to a growing plant. You are applying the water of the Word to this promise of momentum. It is gladly received and used to grow all the more. That growth is wonderful, but the fruit has yet to really appear as those same critics are quick to remind you.

Did you know that in the natural the seasons recently changed? In most of the northern hemisphere the greatest time of the year for harvesting crops has begun. I realize that potentially, in the spirit realm people could be at different stages in this process. Even so, there are seasons that affect all of God's Kingdom citizens in one way or another. We are entering such a season now. The ultimate fulfillment of this momentum will be seen in dramatic ways. Get ready to see yourself radically favored by key people in your life. Prepare for success in unprecedented ways. Step into abundance. This is your new season.
