First, we want to thank God for the beautiful autumn day (not too hot this year). Next, we would like to thank all of the kids from the parish, school, and community that put the "fest" into our festival.

We couldn't have done it without you. You make us proud! To all of those who showed up in the rain, who cooked and cleaned, donated and sold, played and sang, put up and took down, gave us an hour, gave us a day, to those who worked and those who came to support. We are thankful for your part in making Oktoberfest a success!

A very special "Thank you" to Stacey Oliveto for organizing and planning Oktoberfest. It takes an amazing amount of work to put this event together and she does it with grace & style. We appreciate all of her hard work!
