

SORAYA LASHLEY

VP, Operations

Diverse Background

Soraya is a results-oriented, bilingual HR professional with over 15 years of experience in key corporate and consulting positions. Soraya's diverse industry experience includes financial services, healthcare, hospitality, banking software, professional services and nonprofit organizations. She has worked in all facets of the Human Resource function, including but not limited to, talent acquisition, performance management, employee relations, internal investigations, executive coaching, training & development, organizational development, legal compliance and translation & interpreting services.

Education & Dedication

Soraya holds a Bachelor of Arts degree in Sociology with a minor in Comparative Cultures from Middlebury College and holds an HR Management Certification from Rollins College. She is currently pursuing her Senior Professional in Human Resources certification and Master's Degree in Human Resources Management. She is an active member of SHRM and the local Central Florida Human Resources Association.

How This Helps You

As an expert consultant in the field, Soraya brings a wealth of knowledge in understanding both financial and strategic concepts and their influence on the ever-changing world of HR. Controlling costs is a priority for all businesses, and ensuring compliance with local, state and federal employment-related requirements is a costly administrative burden to most small- and medium-sized businesses. Soraya will provide smart HR solutions in these areas and others that are critical to the success of your business.

"Soraya has provided our organization with exceptional Human Resources services, she has the skills and qualifications to get the job done and I highly recommend her as an HR Professional. ..."
