

McCarren Jr., John

John A. "Bud" McCarren, Jr., died March 8, 2000, at William Beaumont Hospital in Royal Oak. He was born April 2, 1934, in Port Crescent to John and Nellie McCarren. Bud was a veteran of the Korean War and was an employee of Kelsey-Hayes in Romulus. He was an avid fisherman during his youth. His survivors include his mother, Nellie McCarren Flanery, a resident of Sunny Acres Nursing Center in Bad Axe; his wife, Lois; three children, Kenneth, Nancy and Lois Marie; three sisters, Annabel Fatalaki and her husband, Richard, Delores Kollhoff and her husband, Ernest, of Evert, and Grace Baker and her husband, William, of Bad Axe; five brothers, Robert McCarren and his wife, Carol, of Lincoln Park, James McCarren of Dearborn, David McCarren and his wife, Y-He, of Maricopa, Ariz., Patrick McCarren and his wife, Judy, of Traverse City, and Joseph McCarren and his wife, Louise, of Allen Park; and many nieces and nephews. Bud was preceded in death by his father in 1949; and his infant sister, Suzanne, in 1946. Services were conducted on March 13, 2000, at the E.J. Mandziuk and Son Chapel in Warren. Interment was conducted on March 14, 2000, in the Fort Custer National Cemetery in Augusta with full military rites.