

Marshall, Margaret

Margaret Hope Card Marshall, 88, of Caseville died Saturday morning, Aug. 10, 2002 at her home while under hospice care. She was born Jan. 25, 1914 in Port Austin to the late Rev. Lester and Mabel (Parker) Card. Margaret moved around a lot with her family when she was young, as her father would be transferred from church to church. In the mid-1930s her father became ill and they moved back to Caseville where she and her mother operated the telephone office. Here she met and married Harold Marshall, a DNR officer. They were joined together Dec. 2, 1951 at the Caseville United Methodist Church. He preceded her in death. Margaret was employed at Caseville Lumber as a secretary until retiring over 20 years ago. She was a member of the Caseville United Methodist Church where she played the organ and sang in the choir for many years. Surviving are two sisters-in-law and several nieces and nephews. A private service took place Sunday afternoon, Aug. 11, 2002 at Champagne Funeral Chapel, Caseville. The Rev. Michael Quayle, pastor of the Caseville United Methodist Church, officiated with burial in Fairview Cemetery, Dansville. Memorials may be sent to the Caseville United Methodist Church Choir Fund.
