WEEKLY THOUGHTS 23rd SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME SEPTEMBER 8th 2024

Dear friends, welcome to the celebration of the 23rd Sunday in Ordinary time and second Sunday in September 2024. In the Gospel Reading last Sunday, we heard of the confrontation of Scribes and Pharisees blaming Jesus for his disciples eating bread without the ritual washing of hands. Their aim was to pull or bring down Jesus as he was a threat to their favored positions in society. It's a pity some people work hard to bring others down to the point of damaging their reputation and character. Let us not be part of this category of people but be those helping others to rise.

The Gospel Reading of this Sunday, Mark 7:31-37 speaks of the miracle of Jesus healing a man who was deaf and had a speech impairment. By his divine power, Jesus restores his hearing and speech.

In effecting this miracle, Jesus takes the man aside. He used the physical means; spittle and touch on his ears. After prayer or looking at heaven, he commands; "Ephphatha" and the effect is immediate, his tongue is loosened and he is able to hear and speak.

The miracles of Jesus attest to the divine authority of Jesus. He has power over physical and spiritual blindness and deafness which is so dangerous as it keeps one ignorant of the Word and voice of God.

In all the Sacraments, Jesus touches our life with grace and the gift of faith grows as we are nourished by the Sacraments; Baptism, Confirmation, Holy Eucharist, Reconciliation and others.

Let us open our mouths and voices to praise God and share the Word of God as we live the commandments.

Let us cherish our ability to listen and share the Word of God with others like family members.

Let us have the courage to stand on our feet to speak out when Jesus is ridiculed and even our own faith attacked. Let us exercise this prophetic ministry without fear.

Have a great week.
