Enjoy Comfort and Convenience in Prince Albert National Park

Prince Albert National Park, Saskatchewan

Are you interested in connecting with the outdoors in comfort? Is your young family looking for camping convenience? Thinking of camping for the first time? This summer, Parks Canada is making your camping experience in Prince Albert National Park easier and more comfortable!

Exclusive to Canada's national parks, oTENTiks are ready to rent in Prince Albert National Park. A cross between an A-frame cabin and a prospector tent mounted on a raised wooden floor, this new camping experience appeals to families, youth, new Canadians and anyone interested in enjoying the great outdoors in comfort. oTENTiks are designed to modernize and diversify the traditional camping experience in the park.

The 10 oTENTiks, located in Waskesiu Lake, are clustered together and embraced by beautiful spruce forest in Beaver Glen campground. This campground provides easy access to site and town and amenities, a nearby beach, running water showers and interpretive programming. Access to trail system for hiking and biking is available right from the campground.

The oTENTik features:

- 19 x 24 ft wide tent provides plenty of room for families or groups up to six
- Sleeping area accommodates two-queen sized and one double-sized bunk bed with high density foam mattresses for a restful night's sleep - $100/night (includes GST).
- A spacious living room, with a table for six, offers a great activity area for inclement weather
- A propane wall heater ensures extra warmth for cool nights and mornings
- An outdoor fire pit guarantees the tradition of camp-style cooking
- Windows that unzip and mosquito screens allow fresh air movement and fibreglass doors that lock
