 - " _____ "-Golgotha, the place of the skull
 - " _____ "-Jews, Romans, us
 - " _____ "-Killer, murdered, sacrificed
 - " _____ "-Jesus, God's Lamb slain for our sins
- When did the crucifixion begin? "The _____ hour."
- Jesus was crucified between two _____ -Why? (cp. Isa. 53:12c)
- As the soldiers were driving the spikes into the hands and feet of Jesus, what was His prayer to His father? "Father, _____ them, for the do _____ know what they are doing." (This is the first of seven sayings from the cross.
NOTE: the Greek indicates that Jesus kept on saying this.
- What did the soldiers then do? (cp. Psalm 22:18)

◆ The Two Thieves

- The first one: Was hurling _____ at Jesus.

- The other one:
 - Note Luke's account, vs. 40-42
 - What was his request of Jesus?
- Jesus' response (the second saying from the cross) "_____ I say to you, _____ you shall be _____ Me in _____."

NOTE: This scene has been used by many to "prove" that baptism is not necessary, for the thief was not baptized and yet was saved. The answer is simple. First, he lived and died under the old covenant and baptism was not required, and second, baptism that saves is "into Christ" (cp. Romans 6:3,4) and at this point in time Christ has not yet died or been resurrected. Thus baptism into Christ's death would have been impossible! The first command regarding baptism is found in Acts 2:38 from Peter as he preached on the day of Pentecost, some 50 days after the crucifixion and resurrection.

◆ The Third Saying From the Cross

- Who was at the Cross?
- What a Scene for a mother to behold! Now is fulfilled what Simon had prophesied years earlier in the Temple- cp. Luke 2:35
- (the saying) "_____, behold your son _____!...Behold, your _____!"
 - Who was the disciple to whom this was spoken?
