

FLAMBOROUGH HEAD : The North Landing inlet looking north. To the left is the west side showing a bevelled cliff of soft boulder clay above more resistant chalk with a natural arch. The wave cut platform extends beyond the chalk cliffs on both sides of the inlet and a bay head beach can just be seen to the right of the building.

