

THE PATIENT WITH INTELLECTUAL & DEVELOPMENTAL DISABILITIES: GENERAL DENTAL TREATMENT CONSIDERATIONS FOR THE ORAL HEALTH PROFESSIONAL

OBJECTIVES:

- Define intellectual and developmental disabilities (I/DD).
- Identify medical/health conditions commonly associated with patients with I/DD that need to be considered during dental treatment.
- Implement positive behavioral supports and techniques that help increase cooperation during dental treatment.
- New Topic- Silver Diamine Fluoride for Caries Management

Sponsor:

- Hawaii State Department of Health

PRESENTER:

- Heera Chang, DDS, MD

DENTAL CONTINUING EDUCATION CREDITS:

- 2 Credit hours for dentists and dental hygienists
- No cost

June 8, 2017, 1:00 pm to 3:00 pm

UH Maui College
310 W. Kaahumanu Ave.
Building/Room - Noi'i #202
Kahului, Maui 96732

Register by June 1, 2017. Limited Seating

Email Registration at: andrew.tseu@doh.hawaii.gov

Call Registration at: (808) 832-5715 ask for Andrew Tseu

