"Elmer" Campaign Encourages Better Safety Habits

Another Elmer, The Safety Elephant flag was raised in a ceremony last Thursday morning at St. Veronica's School with representatives of local groups, City Council, the Clergy and the School Board in attendance. This is the fourth such ceremony held in Dorval Schools during the past few weeks under the guidance of the Women's Committee on Children's Safety Projects of the Dorval Safety Council.

"Elmer" is a symbol of child safety and is flown as long as the school is able to hold its accident-free record. If a child has a traffic accident, either at school or during the season holiday, the police will report to the School Principal and the "Elmer" flag will be flown at half-mast for fifteen days.

If the parents, motorist and children combine to remember Elmer's six safety rules, "Elmer" should fly from the flag poles of all Dorval schools for all of the 1959-1960 season.

- "Elmer" reminds all children to:
1. Look BOTH WAYS before you cross the street.
  2. Keep out from between PARKED CARS.
  3. Ride your bike SAFELY and obey all signs and signals.
  4. Play your games in a SAFE PLACE away from the street.
  5. WALK - don't run when you leave the curb.
  6. Where there are no sidewalks - walk on LEFT SIDE of roadway FACING TRAFFIC and wear or carry something white at night.

City To Seek $400,000 Loan

Financing of present and future civic projects came in for close scrutiny at Friday's meeting of Dorval City Council.

Taking into account the tight money squeeze and the high cost of borrowing, aldermen agreed that the city would have to pull in its belt for the time being at any rate, and would consider only those projects which were of the utmost importance.

It was estimated that planned projects for the future and those now being carried out, total around $1,000,000. In the next week or so, therefore, Council will be going on the market for a loan of $400,000.

Dorval is in a fortunate position

Miss Adrienne Pearce of 96 Brookhaven Avenue, Dorval, presents Mayor Pratt with a special advance tag as preparations are completed for Civic Library Tag Day on Saturday, October 17th. A student at Lachine High School, Miss Pearce has been helping out voluntarily in the Library for approximately the past two years.

Monies collected through the sale of tags will be used primarily to purchase new books for the growing family of readers who visit the Library regularly.

SPECIAL NOTICE

We are pleased to report that, following our notice of intent to suspend publication due to pressure of other business affairs, several parties have come forward and expressed a desire to carry on with The Dorval Reporter.

There is therefore every likelihood that Dorval's family newspaper will be able to continue its wide coverage of community needs and activities as in the past.

In view of the above, publication of The Dorval Reporter will continue as usual until further notice.

THE PUBLISHERS

insofar as its name is in good standing with the banks and there is little likelihood of its entry into the money market without anything but success.

On the other hand, financial experts, versed in municipal affairs, have pointed out that the old days of easy financing are gone and municipalities are beginning to feel the pinch of tight credit throughout Canada. Whereas banks at one time handed out credit with few restrictions today, out of fear of inflation, they do not.

UNICEF Project Promotes 'Hallowe'en With A Heart' On The Lakeshore

"Hallowe'en is a time for excitement and surprise, for dressing like a witch and visiting the lady next door; it is also a time when, by collecting pennies for UNICEF, our children can have their fun and frolics and at the same time help some of the world's needy boys and girls." So said Mrs. A. Johnston, Dorval area chairman, in a recent interview with The Reporter.

"Support for UNICEF, the United Nations Children's Emergency Fund, comes from Hallowe'en for UNICEF, the voluntary contributions of some 85 governments and the sale of UNICEF greeting cards," she added.

"This idea of collecting pennies for UNICEF on Hallowe'en which started in the churches some 9 years ago, has now spread across the North American continent," she continued.

"UNICEF gives aid only when asked to do so by the government of the country seeking aid and then only when it is convinced the program is one which the government will be able to carry on by itself after a limited period of UNICEF aid, and which will gather momentum and produce results as widespread and lasting as possible. Such projects are real examples of international cooperative investments. The 'receiving' country makes the largest investment using local resources and personnel, while UNICEF invests in equipment, material and trained personnel which the country does not possess. This is why the pennies our children pass on to the children of UNICEF are at least doubled by the time they are received," said Mrs. Johnston.

"October 31st can be a day for promoting happiness around the world if we will help the children of our community with their Hallowe'en for UNICEF. One cent will protect a child from TB. One cent provides 5 large glasses of milk. Five cents gives penicillin to cure a child of yaws, a depressing tropical disease."

"Can anyone think of a better investment?" she included. We conceded the point. We couldn't.

Proposal For Two New Pools Endorsed By City Council

Two additional swimming pools, one north of the city at Surrey Gardens and the other east, at Ballantyne Park (formerly Violet Crescent Park), may be ready for swimmers by next summer.

Much depends, however, on the response Dorval Recreation Association gets in its campaign to sign a minimum of 800 pledges from families at $20 per family per year, and the reaction of present members of the Walters Park Pool who have been asked to agree to assign their pool to the city.

Current members of the DRA pool would, in return, be asked to pay only $15 a year for the next 10 years, in compensation.

This move follows talks between Council and the DRA executive and Council's decision at last Friday's open council meeting, at which Council agreed to give financial backing to the projects to the tune of $90,000.

The minimum of 800 pledges agreed would assure retirement of the loan without cost to the city.

One reason for the extension of swimming facilities was the success of the present pool which, during its 80-day season recorded 74,000 admissions on an average of 925 per day. These figures underlined the problem of overcrowding and the need for additional pools.

DRA members have already been advised of the plans and have been asked to give their decision, while every citizen in the city will be mailed a letter outlining future plans and seeking their support.

Promise of a pledge holds them under no legal commitment.

It is pointed out, however, that the $20 will entitle the family to use any one of the pools at any time throughout the season.

Civil Defence Questionnaire Gets Wide Response

The Chairman of the Civil Defence Committee of Dorval, alderman George Goodale has expressed gratification with the results of the questionnaire recently circulated to all householders by City Hall. As of September 30th two hundred and seventy-two replies had been received among which there was no less than two hundred and twenty-three volunteers for one or other of numerous activities required to round out an effective Civil Defence force.

It will be remembered that the City has been divided into five sectors for the purposes of civil defence with a potential sixth sector for the airport. With the exception of sector 5 (Cote de Liesse), which is mainly industrial, the returns from the remaining sectors are equally good, said A.V.M. Ferrier.

There appears to be a quantity of talent available which the Dorval Civil Defence Committee plans to organize as rapidly as possible. Those who have volunteered will understand that there is bound to be some delay, as the overall plan for Civil Defence for a metropolitan area such as that in which Dorval is situated must be outlined in the first instance through co-ordinative action by the Provincial and Metropolitan authorities.

A move is on the way to convene a meeting of Civil Defence coordinators of all communities within the Metropolitan area with a view to defining local problems more accurately.

C.D. coordinator is convinced that the effectiveness of civil defence efforts rests ultimately upon the self-reliance of each individual and he is therefore intent upon organizing the Warden Service as early as possible as it will be through the sector, street and School Wardens that families will be instructed and kept informed.

Mr. and Mrs. R.W. Weldon of Dorval are pictured here with some of the archery trophies they have captured in five years of competitive shooting. This Fall, Mr. Weldon placed second in the Clout Shoot and Mrs. Weldon third in the Ladies Field Shoot at the Dominion-wide archery tournament held in Ottawa.

Members of the Montreal Anglers and Hunters, Inc., Mr. and Mrs. Weldon are enthusiastic promoters of their favorite all-year-round sport which is gaining steadily in popularity throughout the Province of Quebec. During the Fall-Winter season the archery group meets every Wednesday night at 7:30 p.m. in John Grant High School, 36th Avenue, Lachine. Membership fees are only $2.00 per person and complete equipment is available at the school for beginners. Age is no barrier and competent instruction is available from three of the best archers in Canada.

The Club is presently on the lookout for indoor shooting facilities in Dorval. Anyone desiring further information, may call Mr. or Mrs. Weldon at ME. 1-3875.

THE CASE FOR NEW POOLS

The Dorval Recreation Association met criticism, group opposition and prejudice before it succeeded in building a swimming pool at Walters Park.

Principal complaints by the anti-pool faction were the understandable fears that a pool would bring in unsavoury outside elements and the belief that it would lower the value of neighboring properties. Both seem to have been answered satisfactorily, for there can be no doubt pool-users have acted with decorum and that good management has kept its promises.

Some of the DRA's detractors are now admitting, in fact, that the pool has proven worthwhile after all. It has done much to bring a healthy sport within the reach of so many and the D.R.A. has shown courage and initiative in sponsoring the Lakeshore championships and the inter-area meet open to all, whether members or not.

Encouraged by a new surge of support and the recent endorsement of City Council, the association is now looking ahead to the time—possibly next year—when the city will have two more pools.

Realisation of the dream, of course, hinges upon dollars and cents, without which there can be no new pools, and swimming within the city would be confined to Walters Park and a polluted Lake St. Louis.

The former's capacity has been stretched almost to its limits. The comparatively nominal annual fee of $20 that is asked for full family membership is worth the hours of enjoyment that will accrue should the D.R.A. get the support it deserves in building the two additional pools it is striving for in 1960.

We strongly commend this civic-minded project to every resident in Dorval.

MAY WE SUGGEST

Although the Elm Ridge Country Club was out-of-bounds to the majority during the 34 years it has been located here, Dorval residents will feel a personal loss when members move their headquarters from the city next season. The loss will, of course, be flavored with no little fear concerning the future use to which the extensive grounds will be put.

Green spaces and trees are, unfortunately, disappearing far too quickly as new buildings go up. It would, therefore, be a tragedy if this beautiful land were bulldozed out of existence.

One ray of light peeps out, however, in the suggestion that Dorval City Council may seek to acquire some of the property for civic purposes.

Dorval has for long needed a community centre to meet the expanding recreational and cultural needs of its people. Elm Ridge is large enough and central enough to meet these requirements.

Ownership by the city for the city would, too, be particularly timely and would coincide with the formation of the new parks and recreations department, enlarged to cope with the overall planning and programming of recreation activities within Dorval.

Might we suggest, with all due deference, that it would be a fine gesture were the directors and members of Elm Ridge to leave to the citizens, for a nominal sum, the club and part of the surrounding grounds for their exclusive use under City Council jurisdiction.

This procedure was followed by the trustees of Walters Park, who sold the land to the city for a token $25,000 at the bequest of the late Mr. Walters.

A similar generous action was taken recently by Mrs. David Stewart of neighboring Pointe Claire, who gave to that city Mull Hall and its extensive grounds for a community development.

We make this suggestion with respect; we also make it knowing it will be given serious consideration by a body of people noted and respected for their generosity.

We shall miss them. A reminder of their stay here would, in the circumstances, be a gesture few would forget.

A CREDIT UNION MILESTONE

There are 26,000 Credit Unions with 13,000,000 members throughout the world. Of these, Canada has 4,550 groups and the U.S. 19,200. Quebec accounts for 209 Credit Unions—a modest, but strong force by comparison with the overall figure.

This month the movement, which is over 100 years old, is celebrating a milestone in its history—the 25th anniversary of the Credit Union National Association.

What is a Credit Union? It is a group of people who agree to save together and lend each other money at a reasonable interest rate. It is a legal corporation, chartered under government law as a non-profit organization to serve members only. It helps them in the practical ways that count most—making money go further.

Groups start simply in offices, plants and among community groups. All are staffed by members themselves, volunteers. Such is the movement's importance in the economy that responsible management goes out of its way to assist employees in setting up groups.

In celebrating this important event in its history, Credit Union has pledged anew its determination to help towards a better life for more people around the earth for it believes, as do its members, that CU's are needed more today than ever before.

John Pratt Reports From Ottawa

In regard to my recent suggestion that citizens interested in water pollution write to the responsible Ministers of the government concerned, I have had the following response to date: five letters have been sent directly to the two governments, as requested, nine letters have been sent to me, personally, and forwarded by the proper channels, and I have received one telephone call from an interested citizen offering his help. In addition, I have received one letter from a journalist interested in a story and two letters from engineers interested in the design of sewage disposal plants. I have also received a letter from the head of the local C. C. F. Party, informing me that he is asking his Party to support me at Ottawa in my efforts to combat pollution. Not a very impressive expression of public reaction to this important matter, but, nevertheless, a start has been made and I hope to receive many more letters in the immediate future. I shall be glad to send these on myself, but the citizens will save time and effort by sending their letters directly to Ottawa or Quebec, and, incidentally, they will also save themselves the cost of postage as mail directed to a federal minister is postage free.

As I mentioned in last week's column, I am publishing the following letter from the Chief Commissioner of the Board of Transport to the Deputy Minister of Transportation on the subject of railway crossings:

"Dear Mr. Baldwin:
 In reference to the letter of Mr. R. John Pratt, M.P., to the Minister, dated September 1, 1959, and the resolution of the Council of the City of Lachine requesting the Governor-in-Council to reconsider his decision set forth in Order-in-Council P.C. 1959-1010, of August 6, 1959. That decision dismissed an appeal by the City of Lachine to the Governor-in-Council under section 53 of the Railway Act against this Board's Order No. 98115, dated June 5, 1959, by which the Board authorized to be constructed a 55th Avenue under the railway tracks, instead of the level crossing that has existed for many years.

"The request for reconsideration by the Governor-in-Council is not a matter upon which I should presume to advise, for the appeal was from a decision of the Board and the Governor-in-Council gave his considered decision thereon after considering the petition of the City of Lachine and the representations of Canadian National, Canadian Pacific, the City of Dorval and other interested parties.

"I am not aware of any case where the Governor-in-Council has considered a final decision given by him on an appeal from this Board. I express no opinion as to whether he has power to reconsider a decision.

"Mr. Pratt indicated that from a planning point of view a crossing is badly needed at 34th Avenue and that he would like to see federal assistance in the construction of such a crossing. Under section 265 of the Railway Act, grants from The Railway Grade Crossing Fund cannot be made towards the cost of constructing a new grade separation unless thereby a level crossing is closed or substantially all highway traffic using a level crossing is diverted to the grade separation. The proposed new grade separation in the vicinity of 34th Avenue does not meet either of those qualifications, in the absence of a closing of the 55th Avenue crossing, and therefore does not qualify for a grant where a grant is being made towards construction of grade separation at the 55th Avenue crossing to take the place of the existing level crossing there. Under the present law there is nothing to prevent the City of Lachine from constructing its proposed new road across the railway tracks in the vicinity of 34th Avenue by means of an overhead bridge if the City is prepared to do so without a grant towards its cost of construction from the Fund.

"The purpose of the Fund has been to remove or reduce danger and inconvenience at existing crossings. As indicated above, a new grade separation must be related to an existing crossing in order to qualify for a grant. The Minister has received representations asking that the Railway Act be amended to permit grants from the Fund to assist municipalities and Provinces to construct new grade separations unrelated to existing crossings and danger and inconvenience thereto. If such amendment were made, the proposed grade separation at 34th Avenue would probably then qualify for a grant, but I cannot predict whether an amendment will or will not be made. The Minister requested this Board to study the problem and I promised him that we would do so as part of our Fall activities. Our study is underway and we shall report to him in due course.

Next week I shall publish the remainder of this letter which deals with level crossings of interest to other parts of the Lakeshore.

F.W. McIntosh, President and Managing Director, Pepsi-Cola Company of Canada, Limited, has announced the appointment of R.A. Sinclair, of 41 Maple Crescent, Beauport, as Manager, Bottlers' Division.

Jaycee Effective Speaking Course

Under the direction of Mr. Don Crawford, the Dorval Junior Chamber of Commerce sponsored Effective Speaking course got off to a fine start last Thursday.

According to Chairman, Phil Tolcher, twenty-eight persons attended the first meeting with more hoped for at the next.

The course has been divided into three groups, two for beginners and one for those more advanced in the art of public speaking. This way it is hoped that better instruction will be available to the participants.

In addition to members of the three local Jaycee units - Dorval, Pointe Claire and St. Laurent there was representation from the public at large.

"This course has been planned for those having little or no experience of speaking in public," explained Mr. Tolcher, "and it is hoped that as many people as possible will take advantage of it." He went on to say that it was not too late for entry in the course, and urged that those interested turn out at the next meeting. He also wished to make it clear that participation was not limited to members of the Jaycee organization, but was also available to the general public, and to whom a cordial invitation was extended.

While a small charge is being made for instruction to defray expenses, the course is being run on a non-profit making basis.

The second of ten meetings will be held on Thursday, October 15th at 8 p.m. in St. Mark's Church Hall, 97 Lakeshore Drive, Dorval. Further information may be obtained by calling Mr. P. Tolcher, ME-1-0865.

Meet the Teacher Night at Dorval Gardens School

The Dorval Gardens Home and School Association will hold its first meeting of the 1959-60 season on Monday, October 19, at 8:15 P.M.

There will be the usual short business meeting with the larger portion of the evening being devoted to "Meet the Teachers".

Layman To Speak At Summerlea

A George Osborne will preach at Summerlea United Church, Lachine, next Sunday morning when the congregation joins more than 100,000 others in Canada and the United States in the observance of Laymen's Sunday. Mr. Osborne, a member of Dorval United Church, is active in local and district church affairs.

One of the fastest growing movements throughout the Protestant denominations on this continent, Laymen's Sunday was observed by a scant 30 congregations in 1942. This year more than 3,000 times that many will stress the importance of the layman's Christian witness, not only in his church but at home, at work and in every phase of daily life. At Summerlea Church in addition to Mr. Osborne, laymen participating will be Mr. Ross Amos and Mr. John P. Lovelidge. The international theme for Laymen's Sunday this year is "You have been called" (Ephesians, IV:1 Revised Standard Version.)

George R. Logan, chairman of the Session Special Services Committee of Summerlea, in giving details of the service to our reporter, said: "Ours is a Church based on the priesthood of all believers. We are called to minister and set a Christian example every day and in every walk of life. Laymen's Sunday is therefore not essentially different from any other, but it gives public expression to these facts.

"Planning and taking part in these services has helped to develop leadership and vitality in the laymen's movement which is giving new strength and inspiration to the witness of the Church," he added.

Dorval Scouts Paper Drive

On October 24th at 9:30 a.m., the Dorval Scouts will hold a Paper Drive, covering Dorval East from Nicholson Crescent to Claude Avenue. Householders are asked to please have all newspapers and magazines ready, in cartons if possible, or tied in bundles.

These Paper Drives are planned as a quarterly event, and the Scouts are asking for everyone's help in making them a success! The car collecting the most papers will win a prize.

IN FOCUS

By K. M.

Here it is deadline time for my column for The Reporter and I haven't had time to draft that scathing denunciation I have been planning. It concerns breakfast cereal manufacturers who put one useless toy in one box of cereal and then sell it to a family with four children. I did want to issue a special invitation to them to have breakfast at our house on the day we bring out a cereal box containing one plastic cowboy, or diving submarine, or better still, (and may they have hangovers that day), one whistle. I haven't had time to formulate the playful plea for a plain box, with no gimmicks on the outside and just cereal on the inside. Still it is in print and I am glad. Some of the words I planned to use (at 7:30 in the morning) likely never would have made the paper anyway.

With the talk about educating the bright child of such current interest, this bit of information from Mrs. W. Thorpe, Stream Avenue, was timely. Her sister's son, Alex Gillon, Canadian by birth, has been chosen as one of a group of 35 children in Los Angeles to go to special classes for very bright children. He ranked fourth in the group, and at twelve has astounded his family by bringing homework in mathematics which his dad encountered for the first time in the engineering college at McGill.

Behind the scenes at the library. On Thursday morning at the library the place takes on a workshop look. The long table, usually reserved for leisurely reading, is covered with rolls of tape, bottles of glue, scissors, books, and the busy hands of the mending committee work a miracle of order out of the chaos. Battered books get new bindings, and slipping pages are claimed again. Even new books are bound to give them longer life. Five Indies, Sheila Guhrie, Lois Coates, Mickey Macneil, Elma Mickerson, Jean Barkness give one morning a week to the task which adds up to 15 voluntary working hours a week. They complete each week the mending of about 15 books, some of which have gone through two or three processes. The last phase of the voluntary work that goes on in your Civic Library. The books are chosen, catalogued, distributed and MENDED. Think of this on Library Tag Day, Oct. 17th.

A Dorval man, Mr. Werner Graupe, President of Ferro Technique Limited, distributors of imported and Canadian tools, and manufacturers of special tools, had some interesting things to say about Germany one evening last week. On a trip to the Machine Tool Exhibit in Germany he had a recent look at the city of contrast, Berlin. Born and brought up in the city, he knows it well, and the contrasts are much more evident to him.

The Tool Export Exhibition was in a beautiful new building which occupies three city blocks in the centre of East Berlin. The building, obviously built as a showplace, has some incongruous features. One entire new part of the building has no entrance. The linoleum on the hallways which have only had two years of traffic is worn through. The one elevator available was similar to our outmoded freight lifts. The lady who operated it, although she was certainly over 65, managed to get it to work properly by a neatly-placed kick.

Mr. Graupe pointed out some interesting things about buying procedures in East Berlin. The wife of one of his friends in this part of the city went to business so that she could save to buy a T.V. Set. When they put their order in at a State Distribution Centre they waited two years before they received a set. On the other hand refrigerators can be bought on time, and within a year a refrigerator is allocated with no choice of style or make allowed. In contrast to this Mr. Graupe was able to buy a T.V. set in West Berlin for his mother and have it installed on the same day. The whole western section of the city is a showcase of the western way of life - in fact as western as we would like to be in respect to suburbs, and a new one for the suburbs is under construction which could service all of Montreal. This subsidiary one is 12 miles long (Toronto's is 6 miles long).

One significant remark Mr. Graupe made was that the money being invested in expanding businesses in West Berlin shows that great confidence exists in the situation remaining as it is in the divided city.

A police chief in Victoria, B.C. made the front pages of a Montreal daily paper last week with his suggestion that Halloween be abolished.

U.N.I.C.E.F. HAS A BETTER IDEA

The refrain "Trick or Treat" is going rapidly out of fashion. A new one, "Our Trick is to Treat All the World's Children" is taking its place. Let the gleeful small ghosts and the gremlins haunt the night, and mischief may soon be forever forgotten in an earnest campaign close to the hearts of children, the United Nations Children's Emergency Fund. It appeals to children in a language they understand. It translates pennies and dimes into medicine and milk.

The sum of $145,000 was collected in Canada last year by children who were glad to accept money for U.N.I.C.E.F. instead of endless quantities of candy kisses, peanuts and apples. The nice part of it is that our children may still get treats in moderation - but who needs a pillowcase-full?

The idea has really caught on along the Lakeshore and in Dorval. In 1955 only $300 was collected on the Lakeshore. Last year $1000 was collected in Dorval alone. Success has come with the combining of small isolated efforts.

For example, one group of workers in 1957 sprang out of some small boys' misdoings with money - spending freely at the corner drugstore money that they had no permission to spend. A thoughtful mother talked to them about the value of money in terms of other children's needs and broached to them the idea of U.N.I.C.E.F. A fantastic number of children (147) turned up at her back door to take home boxes on the appointed day and $131 was collected. From small beginnings like these the idea has grown and grown.

Our schools serving as depots for the boxes and sponsoring parties at collection time have kept the gaiety of Halloween alive and the interest in the campaign at a high pitch. Just see once the grand march of costumed children at one of these gatherings and you will be captured by the festive spirit so dear to children.

One serious thought to leave with you - Mrs. R. Williamson, Lakeshore Chairman, pointed out that the U.N.I.C.E.F. ideal is the most concrete step toward world peace which has come out of the United Nations. Anyone may participate - stock up on candy if you will, but do stock up in money for the UNICEF'ers out on Halloween Night.

Mr. R.V. Ward of Canadian Industries Limited, (photo) will be Chairman of The Third Annual All Day Forum, sponsored by the Montreal Section of the American Society for Quality Control. The Forum will be held at L'Ecole Polytechnique, 2500 Guyard Street, on October 24-25. Over 200 persons are expected to attend. More than 12 speakers from the United States and Canada will deliver talks associated with Quality Control.

It cost less to own a mongrel than to purchase a purebred dog, says The Canadian Kennel Club. One reason is that reliable breeders stand behind the sale of a puppy. Another is that you know the background of the puppy.

Can Religion Be As Honest As Science ?

In our century, scientific discoveries have given us a radically different concept of the universe than that accepted by people a generation or two earlier. For many people, this has resulted in conflict with traditional religious beliefs that is not easy to resolve. Reverend Charles Eddis, popular young minister at the Lakeshore Unitarian Church, 14 Cedar Avenue, Pointe Claire, will discuss this on Sunday morning, October 18, at 11:00 A.M. in a sermon titled "Can Religion Be As Honest As Science?"

Mr. Eddis frankly believes that many concepts of traditional religion can and should be critically examined, and feels that intellectual honesty is the only proper approach to religion in our era. The public is invited to attend this sermon, which should be of particular interest to engineers and scientists.

Next summer's hot, humid weather holds no terrors for the wise Dorvalite who invests a small sum for a great deal of swimming enjoyment. Raymond Wray, parish chairman for the Federation of Catholic Charities in St. Veronica's parish in Dorval has completed plans for the 1959 drive.

The campaign takes place October 15-29.

In discussing the program he stressed the point that there are two areas of prime interest to him, "First, we must have sufficient men to carry out the canvassing without burdening a few and second, I expect the complete cooperation of the people of the parish."

"The Federation of Catholic Charities is the only group that some people can turn to for assistance and we mustn't let them down," he said.

The overall campaign has set an objective of $634,000 for the year 1959, the highest budget ever established by the Federation. Not only the agencies operated by the Federation look to us for funds but there are others to whom it contributes a portion of their operating expenses. In this latter group are the Victorian Order of Nurses, the Child Health Association, Travelers Aid and a number of others as well as the Catholic School Commission Milk Funds.

"The increased demand on the Federation," said Mr. Wray, "is prompting us to ask individuals to increase their contributions by at least 10 per cent over what they gave last year. People are basically charitable and I'm confident we'll hit our objective."

City Council News & Notes

BUILDING PERMITS

As of the end of September this year, Council has issued building permits totalling $16,048,405—or five times greater than for the same period last year ($3,056,961). So far, permits for October total $172,900.

LIQUOR STORE LOCATION

A motion by City Council opposing the re-location of a Quebec Liquor Commission store from Marcell at Dorval avenue to Dahlia at Lakeshore drive, has been sent to Quebec.

Quebec changed the original site following intervention by a group from the eastern part of the city. Council claims that the original site was better because it would solve parking and traffic problems and, because of its close proximity to the shopping centres, would bring in added revenue to the city through the sales tax.

ROY AND LEPAGE EXTENSION

Council has reluctantly informed homeowners on Roy and LePage that because contractors would not compromise, they must stand by their original plan and extend the avenues to a dead end. However the residents were told that, directly it is practicable, Marcell will be opened onto Dorval avenue. This would, to some extent, alleviate the traffic problem.

CIVIC CENTRE PROPOSED

At a future meeting of Dorval City Council a by-law will be sought to acquire part of Elm Ridge Country Club for use by Council for a city hall, civic centre and recreation area.

Civic Library Tag Day Saturday

Saturday, October 17th, is Dorval Civic Library Tag Day and children of local citizens will be tagging on street corners to raise funds primarily for the purchase of new books to meet the growing demand of library members for more reading material.

Over one thousand books have been added to the accession list in the last six months and library membership has increased by approximately 500 since last December. Already a branch is being mooted for the Courtland Park area and a staff of some thirty volunteers are kept busy doing the many jobs required in a community service project such as this.

Appointment of Charles A. Harris as director of public relations for Canadian National Railways has been announced by President Donald Gordon.

In his new post Mr. Harris, who was prominent in press, radio and television circles before joining Canadian National in 1952, will direct all public relations functions of the company, including its advertising and display programs.

Mr. Harris has been assistant director since December, 1956.

Born and educated in Toronto, he earned an honor B.A. degree at University of Toronto following service as an RCAF pilot during the war.

He lives at 69 Lagace Avenue, Strathmore, Que.

Librarian Mrs. Ann Lachance, while expressing high hopes for a successful tag day, also stated that donations of new or used books are always gratefully received.
