

The Epic Bible Story: Salvation in Jesus Christ

The Chiastic Structure of Salvation History in the Bible

- Creation (Genesis 1+2)
 - Cosmic Rebellion (Genesis 3-11)
 - Abraham' Seed: Israel (Genesis 12- Malachi)
 - Jesus Christ: Messiah, Son of God
 - Abraham's Seed: The Church (Acts 1- Revelation 6)
 - Cosmic Rebellion 2 (Revelation 6-20)
- Re- Creation (Revelation 21-22)

Creation

- Man has communion with God
- Man lives in a paradise
- Man has access to the tree of life

Creation

Psalms 89: 5-16

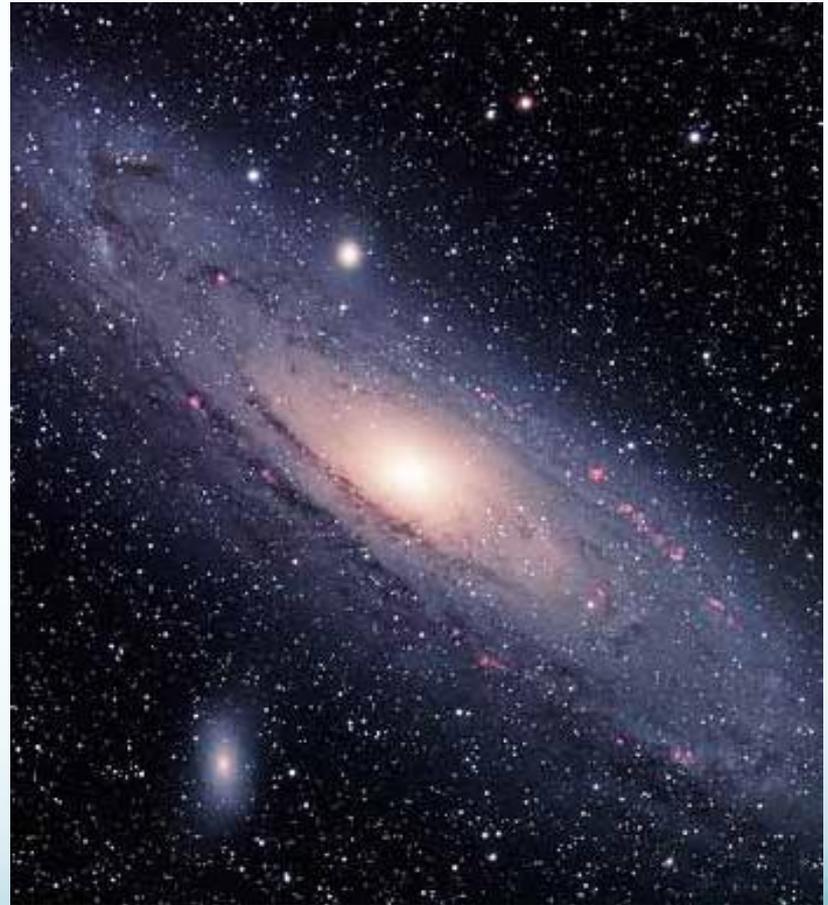

- 6- No one in the skies or any of the heavenly beings compares to the Lord
- 7- YHWH is feared in the council of the holy ones and awesome above all
- 8- YHWH is almighty
- 11-12- the YHWH created everything
- 14- Justice and righteousness are established by YHWH.

Creation

Genesis 1-2: Stars

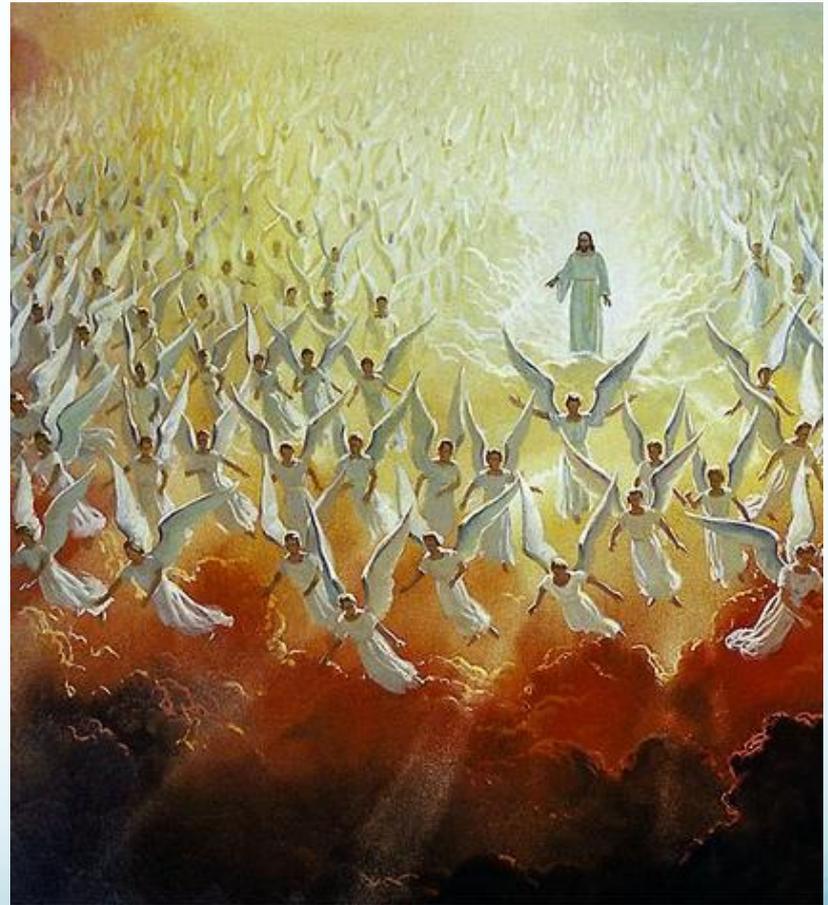

- In the OT, the terms ‘stars’ and ‘hosts (or armies) of heaven’ were virtually interchangeable.
- Ps 147:4, YHWH “counts the number of the stars He gives to all of them their names.”
- Isaiah 40:26, the term ‘hosts’ is used interchangeably for the stars.

Creation:

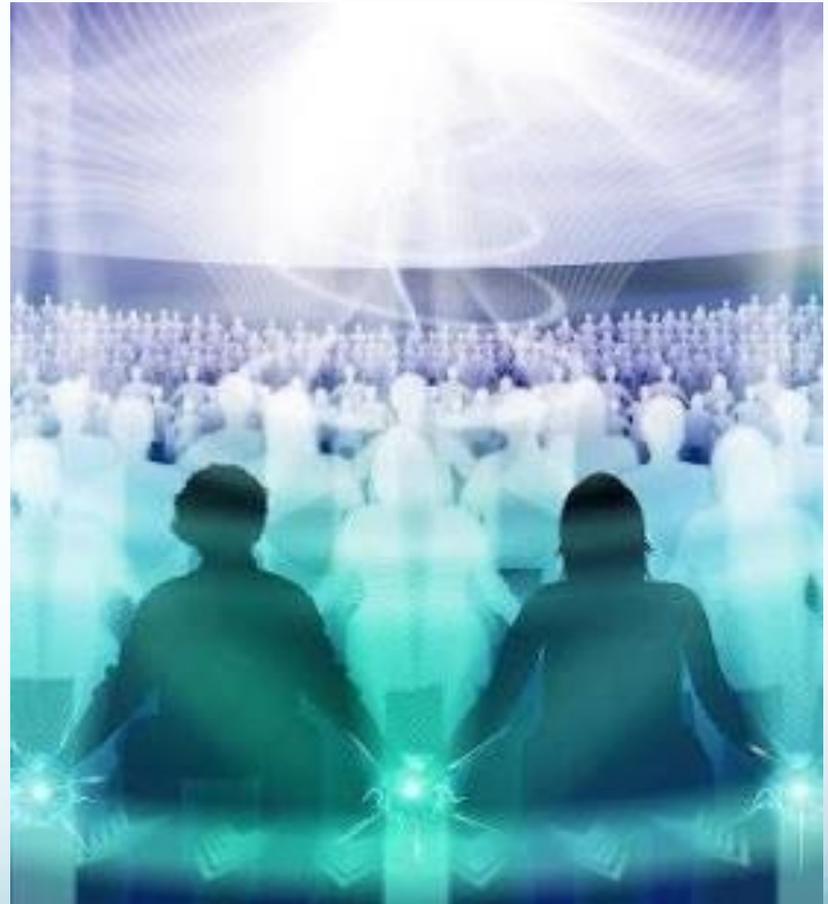

Genesis 1-2: Angels

- YHWH is sometimes presented as a divine warrior, who arrays the ranks of the heavenly armies (or hosts) before him.
- Judges 5: 20 shows that the stars can be seen as YHWH's army in the Song of Deborah.

Creation: The Divine Council

- Genesis 1:14-19 YHWH and His council prescribe the dominion of the heavens to the sun, moon and the stars. In Gen 1:26, YHWH and His angelic council prescribe the dominion of man as “the whole earth.”
- Job 38:7 explains that the morning stars sang together and all the sons of God shouted for joy at the creation of the world.
- YHWH calls together His angelic court in Job 1-2 and also in 1 Kings 22 and reveals His control over rulers and history

Creation:

Genesis 1-2: YHWH's Temple

- The cosmic temple has three domains, each with their corresponding hosts.
- 1. The heavens above are inhabited the sun, moon, and stars.
- 2. The seas below (also a part of “the heavens,” i.e. waters above, waters below) inhabited by the sea monsters.
- 3. The greatest of these is the earth, which is the center. This is the domain of man, the “image of God.”

Creation: The Created Order

- YHWH created everything to reflect His justice and righteousness.
- YHWH gave dominion to the angels to govern different aspects of the created order to the angels. They were supposed to govern with justice and righteousness.
- YHWH made man a little lower than the angels (Psalms 8:4-8).
- YHWH made the earth for the man, because man was made after the image of YHWH.

The Transition from Creation to Rebellion

Creation (Genesis 1-2)

- A. Creation Order
 - Man (Adam)
 - Woman (named by Adam)
 - Animals (named by Adam)
- B. Man has communion with God
- C. Man lives in a paradise
- D. Man has access to the tree of life

The Fall of Creation (Genesis 3)

- A. The Fall is a reversal of the creation order
 - Animal (the serpent)
 - Woman (Renamed Eve)
 - Man (Adam)
- B. Man is separated from God
- C. Man is removed from paradise
- D. Death enters the world

God's Righteousness is Achieved by

Acts of Salvation

- YHWH sacrifices for them
- YHWH clothes them
- There is a prophecy about Christ to destroy the serpent (Genesis 3:15, the protoevangelium).
- YHWH removes them from the garden so that they will not eat of the tree of life in their sinful state

Acts of Wrath

- The serpent is now more cursed than any animal and loses his legs. It must now crawl on his belly.
- The woman gives child birth in great pain and her marriage relationship is a difficult struggle of leadership.
- The man must now toil and sweat to produce food by tilling the soil.

The Cosmic Rebellion

Genesis 3-11

The Serpent
And the Fall of Creation

The Angels
And the Flood

Nimrod and the Tower of Babel

Cosmic Rebellion: Part I

The Serpent

- Genesis 3:1-14, this is an attack on the image of God from below. The serpent is a sea creature that left his proper domain, the sea. The serpent enters the domain of man, where the image of God dwells. The serpent begins his attack through the woman. The serpent's action results in man's expulsion from the garden.

Cosmic Rebellion: Part II

The Angels

- Genesis 6:1-4, this is an attack on the image of God from above. The angels left their proper domain, the heavens.
- They entered the domain of man. The angels attacked through marrying women. Their offspring were giants (the men of renown or of name) Their actions result in the flood.
- These angels are bound in everlasting chains of darkness (2 Peter 2:4, Jude 6-7).

Cosmic Rebellion: Part III

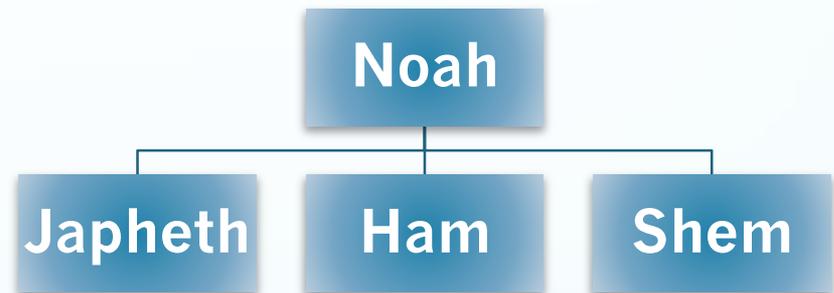

Nimrod the Hunter

- The account of the tower of Babel in Gen 11:1-9 marks the last of three great cosmic rebellions of Genesis 1-11.
- This cosmic rebellion is the gravest of them all, because it corresponds to the greatest domain at the center of God's cosmic order.
- This domain is the earth and it's host: man, the image of God (Gen 1:26).

Cosmic Rebellion: Genesis 10 (The Nations)

- In Genesis 10 there is a genealogy of Noah and his sons. Each son's descendants become nations.
- Japheth, Ham and Shem's descendants have their own clans, languages, lands and nations.
- Paul explains that YHWH did this so that men might seek Him (Acts 17: 25-27).

Cosmic Rebellion

Deuteronomy 32: 8-9: Cosmo- Political Order

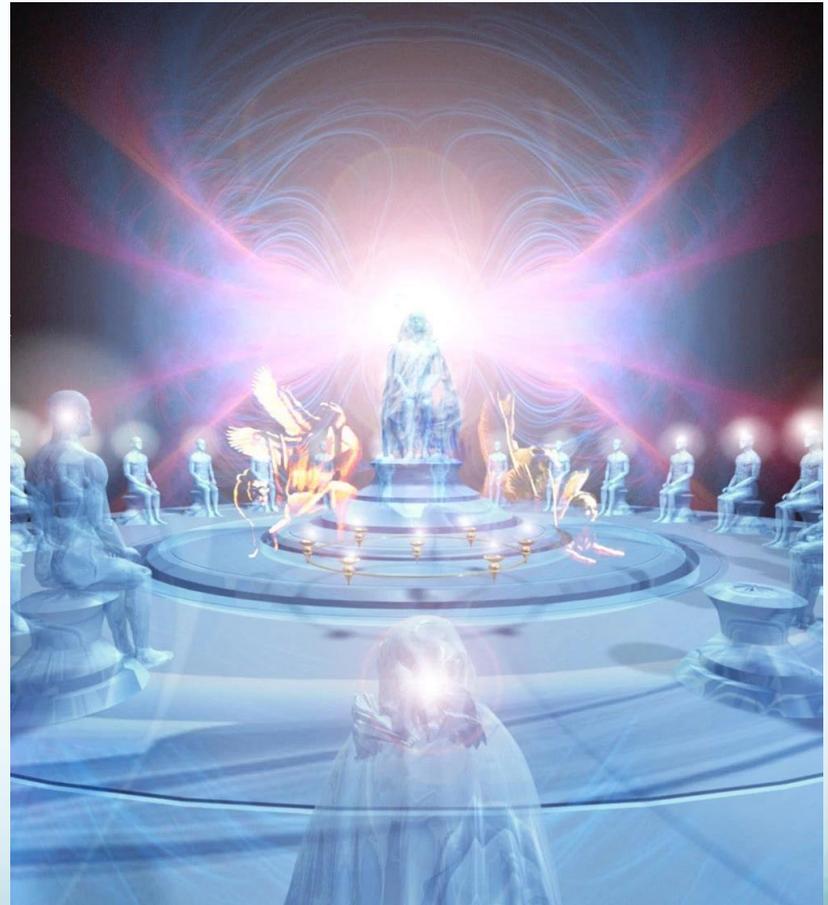

- Deuteronomy 32: 8, YHWH “separates” the “sons of Adam” according to the number of the sons of God
- Gen 10: 32 explains that after the tower of Babel came the list of the seventy nations.
- These nations separated on the earth after YHWH confused their language.

Cosmic Rebellion

Psalm 82: Cosmo- Political Order

- Here is a heavenly trial scene where YHWH takes His place in the midst of the divine council.
- These angels hold dominion over nations/peoples and have ruled unjustly, neglecting their people, and as a result YHWH's intended order is in disarray.
- YHWH then passes judgment over the celestial council. YHWH will evict them from their positions at a time of His choosing.

Transition from Rebellion to Abraham and His Seed

Nimrod The Hunter (Genesis 11:1-9)

- A. Nimrod said to men, “Let us make a name for ourselves” (11: 4).
- B. Nimrod defied YHWH’s command to “go and fill the whole earth.” Instead he commanded everyone to stay together
- C. The people are scattered and allotted to the angels

Abraham (Genesis 12-)

- B. Abraham obeyed YHWH’s call leave everything and to go to a place that “I will cause you to see.”
- C. Abraham and his seed are allotted to YHWH as his inheritance.

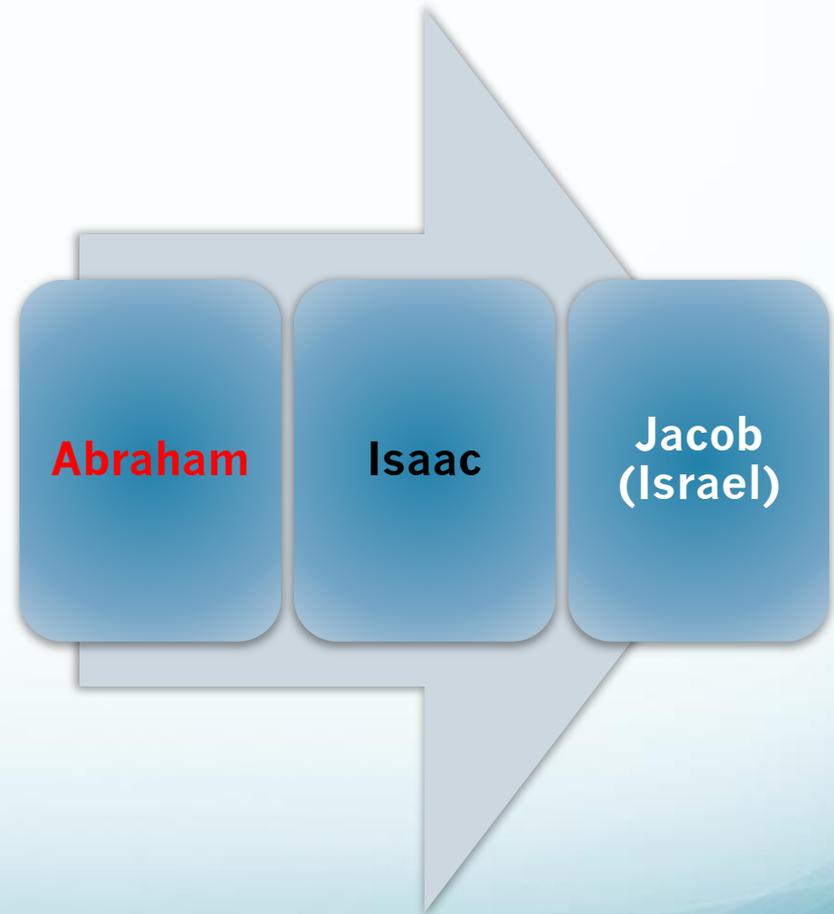

Abraham's Seed: Israel

- YHWH intends to restore the cosmic order through the seed of Abram. His descendants are no longer under the dominion of the “sons of God.”
- Genesis 12: 1-7, YHWH tells Abram to leave everything and go to a promised land. He will become the father of many nations.
- This is to fulfill his prophecy about Christ in Genesis 3: 15. This is an Act of Salvation.

Abraham's Seed: Israel

- Genesis 15:5 promises that Abraham's seed will be like the stars. This includes both quantity and quality.
- Genesis 22:16-18 the promise continues through Isaac.
- Jacob has 12 sons representing the 12 quadrants of the heavens.
- Genesis 37:5-11, Joseph's dream about his celestial family relates to the promise in Genesis 15:5.

- Exodus 24: 1-11 occurs after the defeat of Egypt. It is the middle of the Pentateuch.
- YHWH meets with Moses Aaron, Nadab and Abihu with the 70 elders of Israel.
- The 70 elders function like the stars of the angelic council.

Creation

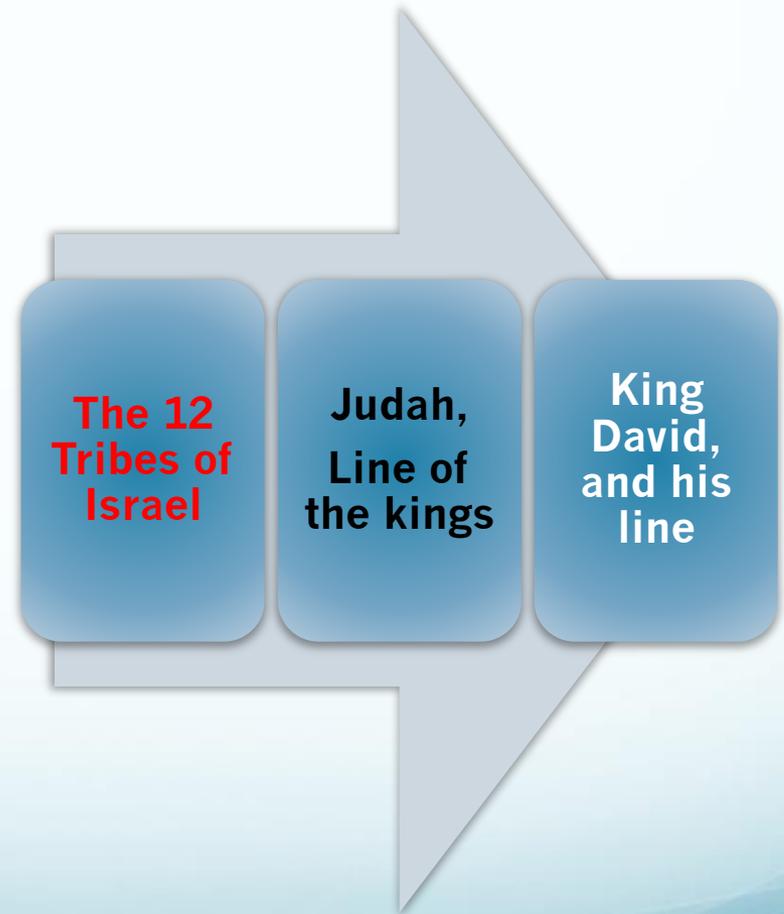

Deuteronomy 4:19-20, The Angelic Court

- The “hosts of heaven” have been “allotted” or “assigned to” all the nations under heaven. This “allotment” expresses the celestial bodies’ dominion over their respective nations.
- Israel was “allotted” to YHWH as his inheritance when He took them out of Egypt.

Abraham's Seed: Israel

- Numbers 24:17 is a prophecy of Balaam that a star will come out of Jacob and a scepter shall rise out of Israel.
- Judah is the tribe of the kings. David is YHWH's choice for king. He rules Israel from Jerusalem.
