

You Can Shed Tears

*You can shed tears that she is gone
Or you can smile because she has lived*

*You can close your eyes and pray that she'll come back
Or you can open your eyes and see all that she has left*

*Your heart can be empty because you can't see her
Or you can be full of the love that you shared*

*You can turn your back on tomorrow and live yesterday
Or you can be happy for tomorrow because of yesterday*

*You can remember her and only that she is gone
Or you can cherish her memory and let it live on*

The choice is yours...

Acknowledgement

The family of Tyndal Hollins thanks you for the many acts of loving kindness shown to us during our bereavement.

Your thoughtfulness is deeply appreciated

The Assignment

TYNDAL ANN HOLLINS

Tyndal Ann Hollins was the last of 4 children born to Johnny Hollins and Lydia Jones-Hollins on April 1, 1951, in Crane, Texas.

When Tyndal was just 4 years old her father passed away. After some time Ms. Lydia re-married and the family moved to Lubbock, Texas where Tyndal began her career playing piano for Greater St. James Missionary Baptist Church where her step-father Rev. Kado Lang was pastor.

In Lubbock, Texas Tyndal attended Phyllis Wheatley Elementary School. Exploring her love for music she played Clarinet in the band at Paul Lawrence Dunbar High School from where she graduated.

Pursuing a career in nursing, Tyndal attended Texas Women's University in Denton, Texas earning a Bachelors Degree and was licensed as a Registered Nurse. While in College she was the music director at Allen Chapel in Dallas, Texas.

Some time after college Tyndal relocated to Southern California where she became the youth leader at New Spirit Baptist Church in Santa Ana where her uncle Rev. T.J. Hollins was pastor.

Tyndal never birthed children of her own but was "Mom away from Mom" to many. She had a rare gift to affect people leaving each individual feeling as though they were ESPECIALLY SPECIAL.

Children of all ages and all walks of life LOVED being in her presence. She oozed the kind of love that could not be denied.

Her phenomenal musical talent coupled with her gift to love manifested a choir that produced generation after generation of young people whom Tyndal encouraged, guided and nurtured.

In 2001 Tyndal relocated to Corona, CA. where she continued her affection for loving and teaching children at Faith Fellowship under the leadership of Pastor Mark A. Williams whom she adopted as her little brother. Tyndal was the kind of member any pastor would love to have because she believed in supporting the vision God gave him.

As an advocate for youth Tyndal's heart was HUGE as she believed in the concept of sharing and would do whatever was in her power to help those in need. WOW what a legacy!!

Upon Tyndal's arrival to Heaven certainly she was greeted by her Mother Mrs. Lydia Hollins-Lang, Her father Mr. Johnny Hollins, her step-father Rev. Kado Lang, her brother Johnny Ray Hollins and her only sister Lindon Brown.

She leaves to cherish her memory her brother Garland (Alberta) Hollins; god-given brother Hurseful (Mary) Lang; sister-in-love Mary Hollins, nieces, nephews, cousins, godchildren, grand-godchildren, Faith Fellowship and New Birth Church families.
