A Note from Rick: Markets were sluggish at TLA last week. We're in the middle of July, so it's hot and there's not a lot of activity in any of our markets. This is not abnormal for this time of year, so also not surprising. We did get some very welcome rain and the heat has broke for now, but this pattern will likely continue for a bit. The feed situation is still a concern for everyone, but I think in most areas the issues have gotten better. We've still got a long way to go though. We have had a stretch of warmer, drier weather that has provided a great opportunity to put up a good 2nd cutting of hay. Hopefully, this will take a little pressure off the hay market. We've started to gear up for our fall sale schedule as consignment deadlines are quickly approaching for the Labor Day Pony Auction, The Morgan Classic, The Friesian Fall Classic, and the Fall Draft Horse Sale. Things are shaping up for an exciting set of sales and we are getting "fired up" here at TLA!
