What Happens Next:

You will receive email notification of your courses from the office. This notice will include an invitation link to register on Zoom for each course taught via Zoom. Watch for that notification and simply click on the link(s) provided. That's all you have to do! You will promptly receive a confirmation email from Zoom that you are registered for that course. For onsite courses, no further action is needed after you receive the email from the Center. Just show up at the Center for a warm welcome on September 14!
