In celebration of the Eucharistic Revival the Diocese of Owensboro is pleased to announce a new event taking place in Owensboro on Saturday, October 22, 2022 – the Parish Ministry and Leadership Conference. This year's theme is "Living a Eucharistic Life as Missionary Disciples". The Diocese of Owensboro is excited to welcome Sherry Weddell, author of Forming Intentional Disciples. This event will also feature a Hispanic ministry track featuring Dr. Gerardo Salazar and Dr. Dora Tobar.

All parishioners, staff, and pastors are welcome to attend this amazing opportunity. The "Living a Eucharistic Life as Missionary Disciples" conference will open its doors at 8:30am on Saturday October 22 at the Owensboro Convention Center. ## Saint John Chrysostom | September 13

Born in Antioch in the 4th century, and raised by his widowed mother, Saint John received a rigorous classical education. He was first called to the ascetic life, even spending time as an anchorite living in a cave near Antioch. However, this life of extreme mortification was hard on his physical body, and he eventually returned to the city to recover.

Saint John was ordained in 298. He spent the next 12 years preaching in the Cathedral of Antioch, and it was most likely during this time that he earned the name Chrysostom which means “golden-mouthed.”

In 397 or 398 he was made archbishop of Constantinople against his will. This post placed Saint John in the midst of imperial politics. But he would not be drawn in. He kept a modest household without extravagance and refused to serve the sumptuous suppers for political supplicants that predecessors in the position had. He preached against corruption and decadence and fought for the reform of clergy even deposing corrupt bishops. Unfortunately, this high moral stance made enemies of powerful people at court and in the Church. They conspired against him and eventually Saint John was exiled to Armenia. He died in exile in 407. He was made a Father of the Church at the Council of Chalcedon in 451 and declared a Doctor of the Church in 1568.
