The financial capital of the world is the City of London. All the world markets are regulated from this 'Temple of Mammon', the Bank of England. The City's coat of arms is the Boxing Dragon. It is a homage to the Beast that is the 'god' of this world, Lucifer that the Bible describes as the Dragon, the 'serpent' and has given power, authority and 'mammon' to his minions that do his will. The game plan logistically is to establish a Central Bank in every nation so as to control the money supply, charge interest and bankrupt the nation on the backs of working people that are extorted of unlawful taxes. The Bible states that when Lucifer establishes his New World Order and installs his anti-Messiah, he will command all to take a Mark that will be the new financial mode of currency. Without this mandatory opting-in, like a nationalized ObamaCare, there will be no means of buying or selling. The LORD YHWH forbids this taking of the Mark because it will condemn people to eternal damnation as perhaps the Mark will also be tied in to some sort of DNA manipulation that will render humans, as non-humans and unredeemable by the Blood of the Lamb, Jesus Christ.
