Sitting Tall

Cracker Jack Camp

Where Horses Turn Riders' Disabilities into Abilities

A 4-H Proud Equestrians Program where children with disabilities enjoy the challenge of a sport that is fun and physically, socially and emotionally beneficial.

This all-volunteer-run therapeutic riding program is free for the riders and takes place on six Saturdays in the summer in Grass Lake, Michigan.

Summer 2016 Dates

June 18 & 25 and July 9, 16, 23, & 30

How can you help?

- Volunteer with your "bomb proof" horse
- Volunteer as a side-walker (age 14 or older)
- Provide weekly snacks, or prizes for the volunteer drawing
- Assist with various aspects of program administration
- Sponsor a rider with a $100 tax deductible contribution

For more information:

Contact Julie Nelson at 517-522-4639, or email tjnelson50@yahoo.com

WELCOME TO WATERLOO HUNT CLUB AND GRASS LAKE!

Enjoy your trip here to the beautiful Waterloo Recreation Area.

There are many beautiful trails to hike and ride on. Feel free to ask the show managers or any club member to help you explore the local area.

Please try to find time to make a short trip to downtown Grass Lake. Take Mt Hope Road south to Michigan Avenue and turn west. Town is at about 1/4 mile. There are cute shops, coffee shops, resale shops, car washes, and architectural building stores set in old town design "main street".

See individual ads for local shopping stops. Enjoy the show!
