

PRESENTER - ANDREW SEUBERT, LMHC, NCC

Andrew is a nationally certified counselor, licensed mental health counselor and an EMDRIA-approved consultant and trainer with extensive background in an Existential-Gestalt approach to growth and therapy. Always drawn to forms of therapy that address the entire person—mind, body, emotions, creativity and spirit, Andrew has developed an extremely holistic approach in his work with individuals, couples, families and groups.

Formerly an educator, musician and Peace Corps Volunteer, Andrew has consulted with Corning Inc, small businesses and human service agencies, providing stress management and conflict resolution training, as well as workshops and coaching that facilitate personal growth and performance enhancement. He has published peer-reviewed articles and book chapters, as well as two books, "The Courage to Feel", and "How Simon Left His Shell: The Courage to Feel for Young People." Andrew is a highly engaging, interactive therapist and retreat/workshop facilitator whose passion about his work is expressed in his use of music, creative imagination, experiential approaches and humor.

In addition to working with a broad spectrum of therapeutic issues, Andrew has a strong interest in healing from trauma and PTSD, particularly through the use of EMDR. This interest also informs his approach in working with eating disorders and helping couples create and renew their relationship. His passion for an integration of psychotherapy and spirituality is a driving force, whether in individual sessions, workshops or intensive Personal Therapeutic Retreats.

EMDR BASIC TRAINING

Eye movement desensitization and reprocessing (EMDR) is an effective and efficient method of treating traumatic memories and related problems. This program has no "parts" or "levels" - this is the complete EMDR training as defined by the EMDR International Association (EMDRIA). This is a hands-on clinical skills training for using EMDR and integrating it with your psychotherapy approach. This program is designed to help participants learn when and how to use EMDR, and to gain competency with EMDR over a period of several months.

The training program involves lecture, demonstration, in-class practice, and on-the-job practice with your clients. This is an experiential training, including practice with other participants.

COURSE OBJECTIVES:

Day 1

1. name four phases of a trauma-informed approach.
2. describe an expanded definition of "trauma".
3. practice delivery of a case formulation.

Day 2

1. describe the difference between EMD and EMDR
2. name the three parts of the preparation phase.
3. practice resource development.

Day 3

1. summarize caution in treating clients with medical issues.
2. name the eight phases of the EMDR protocol.
3. state the three levels of the EMDR processing continuum.

Day 4

1. describe closure of an incomplete trauma processing session.
2. name the major addition to the EMDR protocol with recent events.
3. practice EMDR as therapist and client.

Day 5

1. describe the EMDR three-pronged approach.
2. summarize the EMDR trauma-informed approach to anxiety and panic.
3. explain the purpose of the cognitive interweave.

Day 6

1. describe Joan Lovett's story telling technique with children.
2. describe the difference between Popky's and Miller's approaches to addiction.
3. explain the RUG-C acronym when working with ego states.
