Building and Grounds: Harry Meneilly – June 4th workday = many needed projects were done:
Staining, wood cutting and piled, 5 hours clearing the trails across the Ponds, etc.
if anyone would like to get in a workday there are many Projects in need of attention.
(check with Harry first) But, for example, repaint club picnic tables.
Also, August 17 – 21st Federation is having a booth at Oswego County Fair in Sandy Creek –
They could really use help manning.

Gun Range: Terry Botts – doing ok

Dec: AJ Tennant – reminded members that if they have any youngster wishing to attend DEC
Camp next year to contact him and, Also if you have any questions.

Fall Raffle: Mark Brockett – not present but, u probably have your tickets for fall raffle. Sell as many as you can, those left over that u can not sell check with Mark and he probably has a name of a member who needs more.

Scholarship: Charlie Gibbs – The selected student to receive this will be announced at the School Award Ceremony.

Charlie read items from 'Outdoor news' which were interesting (but, too lengthy to include here).

Fall Feast: some members mentioned having other activities at the feast. (ie) in the past there has been fishing for the kids – egg toss – horse shoes – paddle boats – and -- anyone have an idea?

New members: two (2) applications accepted for the waiting list.

There were no topics raised from the floor.

Meeting adjourned 8:40

Respectfully submitted

Patricia J Abare, Sec't
