...and don't just take our word for it:

"YouthNet does a terrific job of balancing its academic and recreational missions-the teachers provide great coordination every day, and really create a three dimensional understanding of what it means to be part of the school community."

--David Soles, YouthNet parent

"We can all bring lots of our own ideas to our club activities..the kids just come together!"

--YouthNet Club member Siyara Herbert

"It's vital socialization outside of the academic environment - it loosens the formality of the regular day!"

--Diane Grant, SOMS science teacher and YouthNet instructor"

YouthNet FAQ's:

Can I afford to provide the best option for my child? YouthNet has affordable fee options for 3, 4, and 5 day/week attendance, and adjustments can be made for early bird payments. A limited number of scholarships are available.

Besides sports- what kind of activities are offered? SO much more than the open gym! There's Movie Club, Chess, Cooking Club and Club Entrepreneur, to name a few...

How can I engage my middle schooler in some “new “ activities? One of the great things about the EEP is all of the things kids can try that aren't offered during school. It's the perfect low key atmosphere to experience something new.
