

David Poplar

Curriculum vitae

CONTACT INFORMATION University of Arizona Philosophy Department 620 N. 5th Avenue
213 Social Sciences Building Tucson, AZ 85705
1145 E. South Campus Drive (609) 458-1600
Tucson, AZ 85721-0027 poplar@email.arizona.edu
(520) 621-5046 www.davidpoplar.com

EDUCATION University of Arizona, Tucson, AZ
Doctor of Philosophy (in progress), Philosophy, 2017-present

Brandeis University, Waltham, MA
Master of Arts, Philosophy, 2017
Masters paper: In Praise of Gratitude: Reevaluating the Moral Significance of Positive Reactive Attitudes for Moral Responsibility
Supervisors: Berislav Marušić and Marion Smiley

University of Pennsylvania, Philadelphia, PA
Master of Liberal Arts, 2014
Areas of concentration: Philosophy, Creative Writing, and Religion
Capstone project: Pragmatic Encroachment and the 'Word' of God
Capstone advisor: Karen Detlefsen

Dickinson School of Law of the Pennsylvania State University, Carlisle PA
Juris Doctor, 1997
Comments Editor, Dickinson Law Review

Lafayette College, Easton PA
Bachelor of Arts, Government & Law, 1993

TEACHING EXPERIENCE University of Arizona, Tucson, AZ
Primary Instructor
Business Ethics (online) Summer 2018, Summer 2019
Law and Morality (online) Spring 2019
Teaching Assistant
Philosophical Perspectives on Society (Prof. Tom Christiano) Spring 2018

Brandeis University, Waltham, MA
Teaching Assistant
Philosophy of Law (Prof. Andreas Teuber) Spring 2016, Spring 2017
Biomedical Ethics (Prof. Eli Hirsch) Spring 2017
Intro to Philosophy (Prof. Andreas Teuber) Fall 2016
Science on Trial (Prof. Dan Breen) Fall 2015

Harvard University, Cambridge, MA

Teaching Assistant

Intro to Law & Contemporary Legal Debates (Prof. Sharon Fray-Witzer)
Summer 2016, Summer 2017

Intro to Philosophy (Prof. Andreas Teuber) Summer 2016

University of Pennsylvania, Philadelphia, PA

Teaching Assistant / Teaching Staff

Modern American Poetry (ModPo) (Prof. Al Filreis) Fall 2012-present

- Selected to be one of seven TAs who formed core teaching staff and helped develop Massive Open Online Course (MOOC) on modern American poetry on Coursera platform (offered every fall semester)
- Took part in over one hundred video-recorded close reading discussions of poems that comprise the primary course content
- Facilitate student learning through in-person meetings, live webcasts, online discussion forums, and social media; answer questions and discuss interpretations, poetry, and literary theory

PRESENTATIONS

“The Conceptual Transformation of Political Corruption and the Insulation of Politically Motivated Selective Prosecution,” UA Symposium on Policing, Prosecution & Power: Examining Processes of Law and Inequity, University of Arizona, 3/22/2018

“In Praise of Gratitude: Evaluating the Moral Significance of Positive Reactive Attitudes for Moral Responsibility,” FSU Free Will Conference, 10/7/2017

“In Praise of Gratitude: Evaluating the Moral Significance of Positive Reactive Attitudes for Moral Responsibility,” University of Arizona Philosophy SWAP, 9/28/2017

“Thomas Nagel and the Scientification of Intelligent Design,” Graduate Speaker Series, Brandeis University, 3/24/2017

“Restoring Equanimity: Treating Positive and Negative Reactive Emotions Symmetrically for Moral Responsibility,” Graduate Speaker Series, Brandeis University, 11/11/2017

“ModPo and Open Education” panel discussion (video produced as resource for educators on ModPo course site), 9/4/2014

Presentation on ModPo at Advancing Language Education: Beyond the Classroom symposium, Penn Language Center Educator Series, University of Pennsylvania, 12/8/2012

PUBLICATIONS:
PEER-REVIEWED
& LEGAL WORKS

MOOC Evolution and One Poetry MOOC's Hybrid Approach, EDUCAUSE Review Online (Nov. 24, 2014)

Carl D. Poplar & David E. Poplar, Editorial, The Fallacy Of In Re Wilson, 156 N.J. Law Journal 559 (May 17, 1999)

Comment, Tolling the Statute of Limitations for Battered Women After Giovine v. Giovine: Creating Equitable Exceptions for Victims of Domestic Abuse, 101 Dickinson Law Review 161 (Fall 1996)

PUBLICATIONS:
CREATIVE WORKS

Navigation by Spoonlight (poem), Cleaver Magazine (Sep. 2013)

Pray It Forward (humor), Winner, HumorPress.com Writing Contest (Oct. 2012)

Clear Acrylics (poem), Apiary Magazine Online (2012)

Café Sunshine (flash fiction), Boston Literary Magazine (Summer 2011)

Kool-Aid Haiku: An Elegy to Discontinued Flavors (poem), PennAppetit (Fall 2011)

Doorstep (flash fiction), Winner, Gotham Writers Workshop 100 Word Story Writing Contest (Summer 2009)

SCHOLARSHIPS
AND AWARDS

Merit Scholarship, Brandeis University

Woolsack Academic Honor Society, Dickinson School of Law

ACADEMIC ORGANIZATIONS

University of Arizona Philosophy Department Climate Committee, Graduate Student Representative, 2017-2019

ADDITIONAL WRITING
EXPERIENCE

Historical Researcher for author Stephen Fried, 2013-2014, 2019

Assistant Poetry Editor, Cleaver Magazine, Fall 2013

Founder, Philadelphia International Guild of Humor Writing, 2013

Juniper Summer Writing Institute, University of Massachusetts Amherst, 2011

One Story literary magazine summer writing program, Brooklyn, NY, 2011

Various creative writing workshops (University of Pennsylvania & elsewhere) 2009-2015

PROFESSIONAL
EXPERIENCE

Carl D. Poplar, PA, Cherry Hill, NJ
Attorney (1998-2011)

- Litigated civil and criminal cases at all levels of federal and state courts in New Jersey and Pennsylvania
- Argued before U.S. Court of Appeals for the Third Circuit, Appellate Division of the N.J. Superior Court, and trial courts at all levels of federal, state, and municipal government
- Conducted and defended depositions of witnesses, parties, and various technical experts in various fields
- Counseled individuals and entities under criminal investigation; provided

- legal advice to clients about legal, professional, and business issues
- Represented clients accused of professional ethics violations before administrative boards
- Researched and wrote extensively on various legal issues including employment law, professional malpractice, consumer fraud, corporate defense, personal injury, civil rights, tax foreclosure, white collar crime, possession/distribution of controlled substances, criminal fraud, cybercrime, and political corruption

Plutona LLC, Philadelphia, PA

Co-founder & Co-owner (2007-2017)

- Acquire, rehab, and manage residential real estate in Philadelphia area
- Experience with residential construction, remodeling, and property management

EARLY
CAREER
EXPERIENCE

U.S. District Court for the District of New Jersey, Camden, NJ

Judicial Law Clerk to the Hon. Joseph H. Rodriguez, U.S.D.J. (1997-1998)

United States Attorney's Office, Harrisburg, PA

Legal Intern (1996-1997)

Federal Public Defender's Office, Camden, NJ

Legal Intern (Summer 1996)

Philadelphia District Attorney's Office, Philadelphia, PA

Legal Intern (Summer 1995)

New Jersey Democratic State Committee, Trenton, NJ

Campaign Staff, 1993

Sea Isle City Police Department, Sea Isle City, NJ

Class I Special Officer (Summer 1991, 1992)

Last updated: 9/07/2019