MR. KRAFT SAVES THE DAY

The seniors had to call Mr. Kraft Wednesday, October 4th, during 5th hour for an emergency. There was a huge snake under our balcony. My survey kids went down to paint, and it was waiting for them, hiding under their paper. It scared us to death. I can't believe you didn't hear us all screaming out there. Mr. Kraft killed it with a yard stick.

DRUG FREE HALLOWEEN POSTERS

In lieu of Red Ribbon Week, my Life Skills students grades K-5 made Drug Free Halloween themed posters. We could not have done it without the Cheerleaders and Mrs. Tona's help with poster paper, paint and supplies. This week in Life Skills we discussed Peer Pressure and how to remain drug free. They loved the lesson and really enjoyed making their posters. Posters are displayed in the auditorium.
