

SASHA

Sacramento Area Speech and Hearing Association

Dear Colleagues,

Another summer is coming to a close which means it is time to start thinking about continuing education events! The SASHA board has been hard at work planning conferences in an effort to deliver intriguing, affordable professional development opportunities for professionals in the field of speech language pathology.

In an attempt to keep workshop costs to a minimum and to save paper, SASHA will continue to use our website and newsletter to keep you up to date with information about upcoming workshops and any other important SASHA information. Handouts for upcoming workshops will also be available on the website prior to the event. We will continue to use mail-in registration forms, which can be found on the current event page and checks or cash as the only means of payment. Our membership will also remain FREE! Just fill out the form on the website under the 'Membership' tab. Workshops will be held at the Holiday Inn Express & Suites 9175 W. Stockton Blvd in Elk Grove.

SASHA will be sponsoring the following conferences:

September 22, 2017: Dr. Celeste Roseberry-McKibbin, PH.D., Assessment and Intervention for English Language Learners with Language Impairment, Holiday Inn Express & Suites, Elk Grove, CA. (Please visit our website to find out more information regarding this workshop.)
