TO WORSHIP

The flavor of the gospel

“You are the salt of the earth. But what good is salt if it has lost its flavor?” (Matthew 5:13, NLT). These words from Jesus might seem strange to us — can salt lose its flavor? But in New Testament times, most of the salt used as seasoning, preservative, medicinal aid and more came from the Dead Sea, where impurities often compromised its usefulness, especially its flavor.

Jesus urges his disciples — including us — to not let the flavor of the gospel be suppressed in our lives. What might do this? Teachings that treat patriotism, prosperity or any other value as equal to Jesus; the tendency to elevate one nation, church denomination, theological understanding or religious tradition above all others; such intense focus on the laws of ancient Israel that we neglect the superseding grace of God. But neither should we force the gospel on people, like overpowering their food by dumping in too much salt at once.

As followers of Jesus, we're the salt of the earth. Let us use his good news to gently season others' lives with service and love.

Friendly signposts

We need friends. Friends guide us, care for us, confront us in love, console us in times of pain. Although we speak of “making friends,” friends cannot be made. Friends are free gifts from God. But God gives us the friends we need when we need them if we fully trust in God's love.

Friends cannot replace God. They have limitations and weaknesses like we have. Their love is never faultless, never complete. But in their limitations they can be signposts on our journey towards the unlimited and unconditional love of God. Let's enjoy the friends whom God has sent on our way.

Church Happenings

Debbie Thiel brought out several of her Special Needs students to the church right before school let out for a field trip. They all loved our church. The one student played "Amazing Grace" on the key board and he is blind. All enjoyed ringing the bell.

Thank you all for contributing. We will try this system of staying on the same week each month, so we can remember our turn. If by chance you won't be able to make your turn, please feel free to exchange with someone. And please let us know if you do not wish to participate.

We've talked about keeping the refreshments on the lighter side at least during the summer. Fruit, veggies and dip, cold cuts, cheese and crackers or cookies and/or donuts fit into that category and specially beings church service is early. A lot of us have plans when church gets out.

We are on Cactus Dr, is anyone missing him or maybe he just came in from the desert

In Nevada, we post missing dogs, cats, sometimes larger animals like horses, sheep, but in Arizona, Bob & Debbie posted this turtle that ventured onto their yard. By Debbi posting this turtle they found, the turtle found it's way home safe and sound....

Inspiration

Grudges, or carrying ill will towards others are an anathema to all true believers. Perhaps the aptest quotation on the matter that sums this up is "grudges are like swallowing poison and hoping your enemy dies from it". For harboring such feelings towards one's neighbors, one ultimately only injures oneself in the long term, and it would be better rather, in following in Christ's example to pray for forgiveness or turn the other cheek towards one's enemies. In this way, we show true courage and compassion, in a manner that pleases the Lord.
