Biography

Alan Vincent Cole, age 64, died March 21, 2019 at Harbor Beach Community Hospital after a short battle with cancer. He was born June 15, 1954, in Pontiac, Michigan to the late Vincent and Arloa (Stalker) Cole. Alan graduated from Troy High School in 1972 and the University of Michigan in 1976, receiving a Bachelor's degree in Education. In 1989 Al and Beth became Domino's Pizza franchise owners in Saginaw, MI. After 10 years, they sold the business and moved to Harbor Beach, MI. In 1999 Alan opened "Cole's Computers", later "Huron Computers" in Bad Axe, MI, retiring in 2014 due to health reasons. He was a member of Holy Name of Mary Parish in Harbor Beach, MI, where he enjoyed serving as a lector for Sunday Mass. Alan and Beth were married at Our Lady of Lake Huron Catholic Church, on April 20, 1991. His greatest joy was in watching his two daughters, Crystal and Casey Cole, grow up. He was extremely proud to see them both attend his alma mater, the University of Michigan in Ann Arbor. He loved his Michigan Wolverines and watched all the football and basketball games he could.

Al loved all animals, but especially his faithful dogs.
