AHOP's Partners Program Implementation Partners

AHOP is incorporating the services of uniquely positioned specialized and motivated partners. These partners include and are not limited to:

- City of Antioch – The City provides administrative funding, facilities, and general backing for the program.
- Contra Costa County Housing Authority – The CCHA prepares and places section 8 voucher participants into homeownership.
- BALANCE – BALANCE is the requisite Department of Housing and Urban Development (HUD) certified homebuyer education and one-on-one counseling.
- Delta Association of Realtors – The Delta AOR reaches out to realtors to motivate sellers/owners to sell their properties to qualified homebuyers.
- Fannie Mae – Fannie Mae is an intermediary with financing products and general support of AHOP.
- Guild Mortgage – Guild Mortgage provides and delivers the important array of financing products, which when combined and applied, create a substantive down payment assistance subsidy for AHOP homebuyers.
- Chicago Title Company –CTiC provides the title services that promote the ability and capacity to incorporate all of the resources and services required to bring about successful AHOP transactions.
