Football

Kaiser finished our discussion by adding, "There remains a lot of interest in football in Silver Bay. We will continue our Pony League team this fall in addition to the 7-8 grade team. With better numbers in the lower grades, I am confident Mariner football will return."

Agate head coach Tom Nelson says he is very excited to add the Mariner players. "With all these players, we will have only five seniors. We are going to be very young. If we get these players, we can be a strong team this season and with the group we have, we could be special next season too!"

"I feel for these kids. Having this change late in the summer is difficult. My goal is to give them a good experience. We are excited to have players from Lakeview Christian, Marshall, and, of course, the Mariners; Once they are here, we are one team. Fortunately kids adjust."

Augsburg Volleyball Camp Returns to Silver Bay

By John Sandstrom

For the past few years, Augsburg College has presented a volleyball clinic at Wm. Kelley High School. Mariner head coach Alicia Nopola says there are twenty-nine girls attending the clinic this year that runs from Monday through Thursday. Nopola said, "It is great to see the faces. There are some older girls that have decided to play this year, along with some seventh graders new to the program."

Mikayla Coops is a junior setter at Augsburg and was also in Silver Bay for last year's camp. Coops grew up in Belle Plaine and is majoring in New Media. (I didn't have the courage to tell the personable young lady I had no idea what that is, especially since everyone else in the group seemed to know.) "It is a great camp. It is fun to see some familiar faces and see how they have grown physically and as players." Coops said she has been part of camps at both Eagan and Edina this summer.

Natalie Reineccus is a WKHS senior this season and is returning after losing last season to a back injury. "It felt good to get back on the court with friends and challenge myself. It is great to reconnect." Nat said that hitting has come back the fastest for her with her biggest challenge getting her "platform" right. I assume that means getting her footwork right, but I was already pretty humble from not knowing what a "New Media" major is.

Talon Williams is a sophomore this coming season. She is happy to be working hard to "get better" and is really happy to be with her friends. Talon typically plays in the back row for the Mariners. She thought she hit pretty well the first day, but is struggling getting her (you guessed it) platform the way she needs it.

Nopola says that the official start date for volleyball practice is August 15th.
