

After this election, Now What?

Micah 6:8 (NLT) ⁸ No, O people, the LORD has told you what is good, and this is what he requires of you: to do what is right, to love mercy, and to walk humbly with your God.

I was as shocked as everyone else about the results of our Presidential election.

I also know that many people in our country are hurt and fearful of what the future holds.

Let me point out some things that have NOT changed after this election:

- Before the election, America desperately needed the mercy and grace of God. After the election, we still do.
- Before the election, our nation was deeply divided: racially, politically, spiritually. After the election, we still are.
- Before the election, our only hope for the future was in Jesus Christ, not a politician. After the election, HE still reigns.

“No matter the election results, my job remains the same:

1. Love God
2. love people
3. preach Jesus
4. spread hope
5. build His church
6. advance His Kingdom.

Actions to take:

- A. Pray and Fast for our Nation and New Leaders.
- B. God calls us to live in communities shaped by peace and cooperation.
- C. God created us for each other, and therefore our security depends on the well-being of our global neighbors.
- D. God calls us to be advocates for those who are most vulnerable in our society.
- E. Each human being is created in the image of God and is of infinite worth.
- F. The earth belongs to God and there is good on this earth.
- G. Christians have a biblical mandate to welcome strangers.
- H. Those who follow Christ are called to heal the sick.
- I. Because of the transforming power of God’s grace, all humans are called to be in right relationship with each other.
- J. Providing enriched learning environments for all of God’s children is a moral imperative.