Meet the Carolina Chord Connection Director

Our Director, Jo Broadway, has been enjoying the sharing of this wonderful hobby for more than four years w/ the Carolina Chord Connection (once known as The Brotherhood of Harmony). This, however, was not the beginning for her. She has been involved w/ barbershop singing since she first joined Sweet Adelines, Inc., in PA in 1972. She served as an Assistant Director there for a few years before returning to Washington, NC, in 1985. She quickly sought out the Eastern Carolina Chapter in Greenville, soon becoming their Director. She has sung in quartets in both states w/ her most active one being Premium Blend in Greenville which competed in Regional Contests. She also took the local ladies' chorus to Regional Contests. "Barbershop singing has brought a special joy to my life for which I am most thankful," she states. This our fourth show together

Invitation to Join the Carolina Chord Connection

Like jazz, barbershop harmony is a uniquely American art form. This style of four part a cappella singing probably came about in the late 1800s and early 1900s from African-American origins. Its modern roots may be traced to the late 1930s when a group of Midwest businessmen got together in a hotel lobby for some singing. The Barbershop Harmony Society resulted and today it consists of about 35,000 men from local chapters in the USA and many thousands more from countries all over the world.

The Carolina Chord Connection was first incorporated as a local chapter of the Barbershop Harmony Society in the 1950s. That group faded but was re-incorporated in 1978 as the Greenville NC Area chapter. It presently consists of about 25 men of different ages and all walks of life. From this group several active quartets have been formed. Most do not have formal musical training.

Our local chapter meets for music practice once a week on Monday evenings in the Jaycee Park Auditorium in Greenville, (East Branch Public Library) from 7:00 until 9:00 PM. Carolina Chord Connection is also available for hire to entertain for groups of all kinds for occasions. CCC also performs gratis for nursing homes, civic organizations, etc., numerous times throughout the year. Our Music Director is Ms. Jo Broadway.

Drop by to our practice meetings any Monday night for some fun and fellowship. You'll be made most welcome. Call Dan Sprau (252-355-2712) our membership VP, for more information.

The Magnolia Belles

Founded in 2006, the Magnolia Belles is a student-run a cappella group consisting of around twenty vocally talented women from East Carolina University. The Magnolia Belles name recalls the beautiful magnolia trees that adorn the campus and honors the memory of three sisters who came to East Carolina Teachers College from Magnolia, NC in the 1920s. The Belles perform throughout the year for alumni, campus, and community events in addition to their annual spring concert. The repertoire includes contemporary pop, R&B, country, oldies, and their own versions of the “Fight Songs” and “Alma Mater.”
