Gospel: Jn 6: 60-69.

"Understanding & Belief"

The human story is one filled with broken dreams. Created in the image of God, we can fashion marvelous possibilities of success, fame and pleasure, and spend much of our time and effort trying to make at least some of these dreams come true. But we will always encounter along the way people or circumstances that will shatter those dreams. Our dreams will or will not be realized based on the decisions that we make which determine the course of our lives. We are faced with these decisions every day.

We are not waiting for God's promise of redemption to be fulfilled. Rather, we are supposed to be living as people who have already experienced the incredible goodness of God... people who have been given a promise and people who are living the dream.

It is the Spirit who enables us to comprehend Jesus' words, accept them in faith and then receive and live the life they give. It is the Spirit who gives us with the faith to recognize the flesh and blood of Christ in the bread we eat and the wine we drink today. But like those in the Gospel today, the decision to listen, to comprehend, to live and to dream, is the difference between understanding and belief.
