

12 POWERful Peace Affirmations

The Universe is calling for Divine Faith. I give thanks for Faith, the power of positive expectation, in the minds of creative dreamers, prayer leaders, and planners.

The Universe is calling for Divine Imagination. I give thanks that Divine Imagination, the creative power, brings forth a world more beautiful, harmonious, prosperous, and healthy.

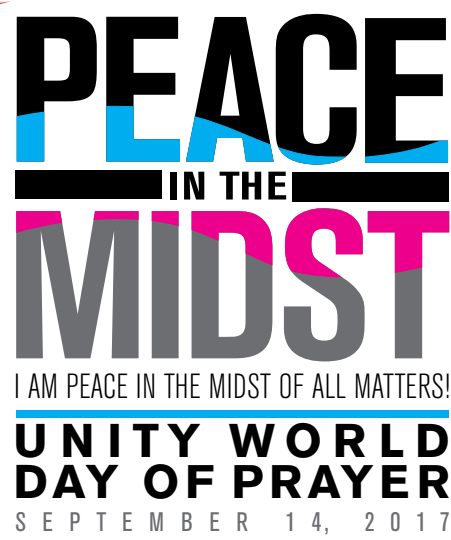

The Universe is calling for Divine Understanding. I give thanks that Divine Understanding is moving through the hearts of world leaders as they seek peaceful solutions to world concerns.

The Universe is calling for Divine Will. I give thanks that common people display uncommon commitment to relieving the suffering of others in our neighborhoods, communities, and countries.

The Universe is calling for Divine Zeal. I give thanks that teachers everywhere employ Divine Zeal, the power of devotion, to educate and empower people of all ages.

The Universe is calling for Divine Power. I give thanks that Divine Power, self-mastery, is being expressed as more individuals in the world than ever before are taking responsibility for the quality of their lives.

The Universe is calling for Divine Love. I give thanks that Divine Love, the harmonizing power, allows all people to see the Divine in all others—in fact, to see no “other” but only One!

The Universe is calling for Divine Wisdom. I give thanks that the activity of Divine Wisdom, the discerning power, expresses at the border between the United States and neighboring countries so that all people may be free to pursue peaceful living.

The Universe is calling for Divine Order. I give thanks for Divine Order, the Power of Adjustment, expressed as support for restoration of countries and their people ravaged by violence.

The Universe is calling for Divine Strength. I give thanks that Divine Strength, the power of courage and tenacity, is the driving force behind grass-roots initiatives to improve conditions for the most vulnerable among us.

The Universe is calling for Divine Release. I give thanks that the Divine Power of Release is expressing as forgiveness in healing relationships between people and among nations.

The Universe is calling for Divine Life. I give thanks for Divine Life, the Power of Vitality, expressed by rescue personnel, medical providers, and care givers, as they offer safety, shelter, and sustenance to young and old in need.