

Play Presented By Drama Club This Weekend

TIME OUT FOR GINGER plays tonight and this weekend, as the Dependent School Drama Club treats parents and friends to a fun-filled performance at the Dependent School cafeteria.

The lights go up for Act One promptly at 8 p.m., and Mrs. E.L. Delane, director, warns that most of the tickets have already been sold. Tickets will be sold at the door as long as they last.

Tonight Betty Lathram plays the starring role of Ginger, Alan Kashdan plays the father and Robin Adair plays the mother. Philip Newton reportedly does a great performance as an irate bank president.

Tomorrow night's cast include Philip Newton, Kay Pillow, Michael Squires, Dawn English, Patricia Bosak, John Delane, Jerry Stubbs, Alan Kashdan Laurie MacIntyre, Martha Renville, Leslie Rowe and Gayle Nelson.

MARTHA BENVILLE—plays the role of Ginger in tomorrow night's presentation of TIME OUT FOR GINGER at the school cafeteria.
